Blazons

ALCOHOL, DRUG TELEPHONE COUNSELING -- There will be a new Alcohol and Drug Counseling service available to the citizens of our county in the form of a toll free telephone number operating 24 hours a day, seven days a week. The service is funded by Sandhills Center and is designed as a means to provide another channel of contact for persons needing information and counseling for alcohol and drug problems. If you need help or just need to talk, call 1-800-438-1026.

IRS ASSISTANCE -- The Internal Revenue Service is offering assistance to North Carolina taxpayers this year in several ways. The fastest and best method offered is the toll-free telephone number, 1-800-424-1040, which is available every weekday from 8:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Generally, the best time to call this number during the busy period is early morning or late afternoon. In addition the office in Fayetteville at 225 Green St. is open for questions from 10 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. It is not necessary to make an appointment for assistance, which is given on a first come, first served basis. It is recommended that taxpayers needing help bring their W-2 forms and other tax documents. The IRS also sponsors a tax preparation program called Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA). Sites are staffed by community volunteers in 72 counties. These volunteers prepare returns for low income, elderly and handicapped individuals.

JELLY SALES -- Raeford Jaycees are once again preparing for their annual Jaycee Jelly Sales to raise money for the North Carolina Jaycee Burn Center located in Chapel Hill. Lasting throughout the month of January, this year's campaign will be the 10th year of the Jelly Sales. Jaycees will be selling the jars of jelly for $1.00 each.

During March BINGO -- Raeford Junior Woman's Club will sponsor bingo each Saturday in March, at the Civic Center. Games will begin at 7:30 p.m. Various games will be played culminating with a jackpot game of $50. All proceeds will benefit Hoke County charities.

Still more winter

Although winter took a brief rest this week, forecasters are predicting that this area will have below normal temperatures for the next 90 days.

This pond which was iced over recently will probably return to a frozen state before spring.

Heart Campaign Kicks Off

The 1984 Heart Fund Campaign goal for Hoke County has been set at $11,500, county Heart Association President Emma Mims said.

The Hoke County Heart Association held an organizational meeting on January 23 at the county library.

Mrs. Barbara Lippard will continue to serve as Treasurer of the Hoke County Heart Association. She will receive and account for all local Heart Association funds, including Memorial Gifts.

Anyone wishing to make a Memorial Gift should contact Mrs. Lippard at 875-5106. Memorial Gifts are acknowledged to the next-of-kin and the donor within 24 hours of receipt by the state office in Chapel Hill.

Contributions are tax-deductible.

Anna Jordan will again serve as Public Information Chairperson.

She will be responsible for informing the residents of Hoke County of activities and benefits during the campaign. She will also help the citizens become aware of the problems caused by diseases of the heart and blood vessels.

Mrs. Rebecca C. Smith will be the Fund Raising Chairperson. She will be responsible for Hoke's Fund raising program this year. Mrs. Smith is a Health Educator with the Hoke County Health Department.

A 1981 graduate of East Carolina University, she has spent most of her life in Hoke County. This is Mrs. Smith's first year working with the Heart Fund. She feels very strong about the work of the Heart Fund because it is closely related to her work as a Health Educator.

Mrs. Smith announced the people who will be helping her with the campaign. They are as follows: Special Gifts Chairperson - Edna Bratcher, Rural Heart Fund Director - Charlotte Kelly, Jump Rope for Heart - Susan Blackmon, City Chairperson - Charlotta Howell, Business Day - Tom Howell, Balloons and Tags - Betsy Collins and Alice Pettit, and Heart Sunday - Carolyn McGee.

Beth Brady, Field Consultant for the N.C. Heart Association discussed Volunteer job descriptions and responsibilities. She showed a short film on the work of the Heart Fund. Her discussion concluded with a question and answer period.

Mims encouraged everyone present to work hard for a successful campaign.

Anyone wishing to help with the Hoke County Heart Association should contact Mims or Mrs. Smith.
