She has been cited for outstanding performance in the area of history and government. The Academy recognizes honor students who have been nominated by teachers, counselors or coaches. Leadership, academic performance and enthusiasm are criteria for selection to the Academy.

Frye-Lee Couple Pledge Vows

Billie Sue Lee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Lee of Saint Pauls and David Allen Frye, son of Mr. and Mrs. Junior B. Frye of Raeford were united in marriage Saturday, January 28 at 3:30 p.m. in the MacPherson Presbyterian Church in Fayetteville. Dr. John Y. Todd III officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The church was decorated with two seven-tiered candelabrum and one large floral bouquet.

A program of wedding music was presented by organist James R. Creech. Songs included "Now Thank We All Our God," "God of Our Father," "Purcell Trumpet Tunes One and Two" and "The Wedding March."

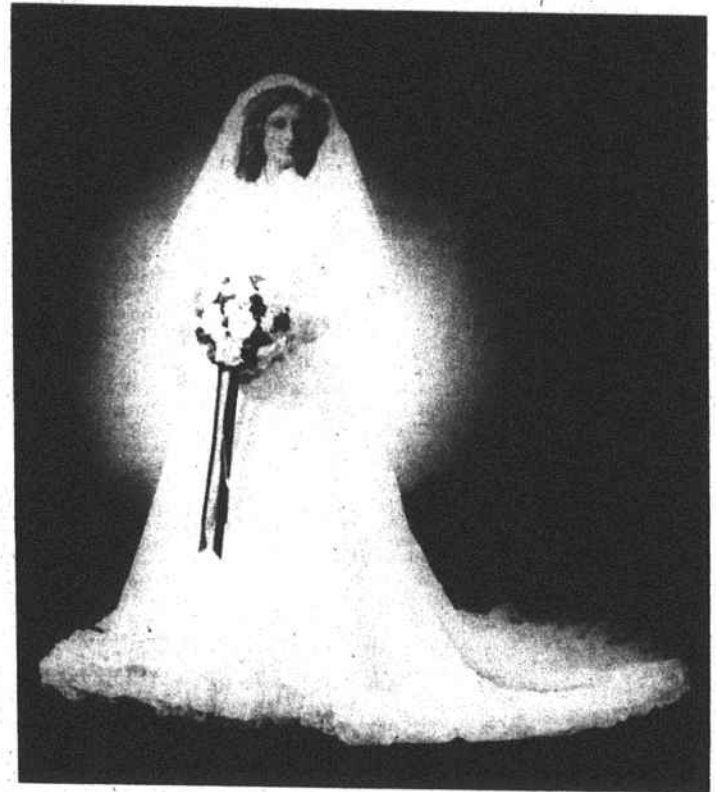

The bride, escorted by her father, wore a white gown of chiffon and chantilly lace with a fitted bodice that had a sheer lace yoke and a lace mandarin collar. The front bodice was decorated with pearls of lace and had a pinnefore design outlined with chantilly lace ruffles. The waistline was accented with re-embroidered chantilly lace. The gown also featured a drop waist at the back. The sheer fitted sleeves were appliqued with re-embroidered chantilly motifs. The back and sides of the gown were of an apron effect that cascaded from the waist to the hem with a flat and ruffled chantilly hem edged in ruffled chantilly semi-cathedral train.

The bride wore a camelot cap covered with chantilly lace and dotted with pearls. The double-tiered fingertip veil was pencil-edged in scallop designs and chantilly lace motifs. She carried a large bouquet of white and wine colonial carnations, poms and baby's breath.

Miss Wanda Carter served as maid of honor during the ceremony. She wore a dark wine gown with a tiered skirt of sheer polyester knit lined in taffeta. The gown featured double-puffed sleeves a scooped front and back neckline with ruffled flounce trim. She carried a bouquet of flowers identical to the bride's.

Miss Barbara Cobb, cousin of the bride, of New York and Miss Annette Nance, cousin of the bride, of St. Pauls attended as bridesmaids. They wore gowns and carried bouquets identical to the maid of honor's.

Miss Rosetta Lee of St. Pauls served as flower girl while Justin

Mrs. David Allen Frye

Hardin of Raeford attended as ringbearer.

The flower girl wore a white lace gown with puffed sleeves and a U-shaped neckline. She carried a basket of colonial carnations, poms and baby's breath.

Kenneth Craig of Raeford served as best man. Charles Cobb, cousin of the groom, of New York and Brent Hardin of Raeford attended as ushers.

The bride's mother wore a mist mauve gown of polyester knit with sheer nylon lace sleeves.

The groom's mother wore a mauve gown of polyester chiffon with an under slip of taffeta. The gown featured bishop sleeves with snap close lace cuffs.

Following the ceremony, the groom's parents hosted a reception in the church fellowship hall.

The bride and groom's parents were at the receiving line during the reception.

Mrs. Lisa Ellis of Lumber Bridge kept the bride's book while Mrs. Anne Hardin of Raeford served the wedding cake.

Mrs. Madeline Cobb and Mrs. Mecon Line of New York, aunts of the groom, also assisted with the reception.

The bride is a senior at Hoke High School. The groom is a graduate from Robeson Country Day School in Red Springs and is presently employed with McCain Correctional Center in McCain.

Following a wedding trip, the couple will reside in Raeford.

Raeford Juniorettes Honor New Members

On Monday night, February 6, the Raeford Juniorettes held a Spaghetti Dinner in honor of its new members. The dinner was held at the home of Carmen Fowler. The new members were welcomed by Juniorette President, Melody Williams. After dinner speaker was Mrs. Robert Britt, President of the Junior Woman's Club, which sponsors the club. The old members then performed the candle lighting induction service.

The Juniorettes have many tentative plans such as "Singing Valentines" which they sponsor each year. "Singing Valentines" will be $2.00 in town and $4.00 out of the city area. Anyone wishing to place an order should call 875-2111 between the hours of 3:00 and 9:00 on February thirteenth and fourteenth.

The Juniorettes are presently working with the resthomes on an "Adopt A Friend" program. This will involve the girls visiting certain "friends" in the resthome on a regular schedule and remembering them on special occasions.
