Performing at McCain
The West Hoke Chorus, shown here, performed at McCain Hospital on Valentine's Day under the direction of Miriam McNeill. The group of fourth-graders sang a variety of songs including a number of spirituals, such as, "Swing Low, Sweet Chariot," "Wade in the Water," and "Jesus Walked this Lonesome Valley." Other selections were "Kids are Music" and "Over the Rainbow." The students from West Hoke said they enjoyed the opportunity to sing at McCain and their audience seemed responsive and appreciative.

Hoke Highlights

By Andrea Shaw

Vanessa Ferrell was named Miss EKOH for 1984 during the pageant which was held last Thursday night at 7:30 in the MacDonald Gymnasium. Sponsored by the Annual Staff under the direction of Susan Houston, the pageant was an evening of beauty highlighted by entertainment provided by members of the Hoke High Chorus and Chorale, Little Miss Lumbee, and Miss Lumbee. After Evening Gown Competition, the eight finalists were named as follows: Alice Adkins, Pam Barnes, Missie Beckman, Vanessa Ferrell, Cherri Lamb, Jennifer Porter, Wanda Taylor, and Teresa Williams. Master of Ceremonies, Charlie Parsons, introduced Miss EKOH 1983, Donna Maxwell. Patricia Sizemore was named Miss Congeniality. First runner-up was Teresa Williams and second runner-up was Pam Barnes.

As the basketball season winds down, the Bucks are playing pretty good ball. This week, they had one good night and one bad night. Tuesday night, the Lady Bucks defeated Terry Sanford by a score of 76-51. On Friday night, they were defeated by Pinecrest. The Varsity Bucks defeated Terry Sanford 64-59. They, too, were defeated by Pinecrest on Friday night by a score of 62-79.
