Women of Church hold meet

The ninety-fifth annual meeting of the Women of the Church of Fayetteville Presbyterian convened at First Presbyterian Church, Rockingham, N.C., March 27-28. Mrs. J.R. McLester, Presbyterian president presided. Attending were 440 women and 10 guests.

The Invocation was delivered on Tuesday evening and Wednesday morning by the Reverend W.W. Hatcher, Executive Presbyter of Fayetteville Presbyterian. Miss Norma Underwood, as president of the WOC of the host church, welcomed the assembly.

Inspiration speaker for both sessions was Mrs. Silas M. Vaughn, director of the N.C. Presbyterian Women's Conference and Chairman-elect Synod's Ministry Group on Women. Her theme was "God's Promises are Beautiful."

Special music was provided by the Chancel Choir.

Mrs. Joseph Marley presented the offering objective, the Women's Prison Ministry in Raleigh.

Mrs. A.A. Markley, Birthday interpreter, presented the 1984

Birthday objective, the Third World Church Leadership Center in Seoul, Korea.

Miss Virginia McGirt made announcements pertaining to the Camp Monroe Retreat to be held Tuesday evening, May 15, 1984, with Dr. Mary Boney Sheats as guest speaker.

Reports of the president and treasurer were heard, as were reports of special and standing committees.

An Honorary Life Membership from WOC Fayetteville Presbytery was presented by Miss Virginia Graham, Presbyterian historian, to Mrs. Joseph P. Marley of Southern Pines.

At the conclusion of Wednesday's session, Mrs. B.E. Huffine of Wilmington, installed the following new officers and chairmen: President-Elect -- Mrs. Mack Hudson, Benson; Vice-President -- Mrs. Assad Meymandi, Fayetteville; Treasurer -- Mrs. Mike Harper, Sanford; Chairmen: Christian Community Action -- Mrs. Paul C. Greene, Carthage; Ecumenical Missions and Relations -- Mrs. Danny Strawn, Fayetteville; White Cross -- Ms. Ethea Thompson, Fayetteville; District II -- Mrs. Katherine Kearney, Fayetteville; District III -- Mrs. A.H. McMillan Sr., Parkton; District IV -- Mrs. David Evans, Laurinburg.

The Presbyterian council and guests were entertained at dinner at the home of Mrs. J.R. McLester, Rockingham, Tuesday evening by the women of the host church. A luncheon for the entire assembly was served at the church following the Wednesday session. First Presbyterian Church, Sanford, will host the 1985 annual meeting.

Shower honors April bride-elect

Mrs. Nell Averitt honored April 21 bride-elect Rebecca Peoples Stokes with a floating miscellaneous shower on Saturday, March 24th at the Averitt home on E. Donaldson Ave. Mrs. Florence Macko and daughter Mrs. Pat Prince were co-hostesses.

Guests called between the hours of 2 and 4 O'clock.

After gifts were opened and displayed, guests were invited into the dining room for refreshments.

The dining table was covered with a white lace cloth and centered with a silver candelabra and an arrangement of silk flowers. A white iced sheet cake decorated with wedding bells was cut and served by Mrs. Pat Prince. Other refreshments included open-faced sandwiches, mints, nuts and punch.

The honoree received a corsage or pink carnations with tiny white wedding bells and gifts of silver in her chosen pattern from the hostesses.

Yard sale scheduled

Members of the Raeford Precinct 4 will hold a yard sale Saturday at the Civic Center.

The event will kickoff early and will run until noon.

Proceeds will go to the Hoke County Democratic Party.
