Fram-Brown wedding vows spoken in Durham Saturday

Miss Evelyn Brown and Dr. Evan Keith Fram were married Saturday, April 28 at 7:00 p.m. in the Sarah P. Duke Gardens in Durham. Rabbi Martin Beifield officiated for the double ring ceremony. Musicians were Anna Ludwig-Wilson on flute and William J. Stewart on classical guitar. Mrs. Pris Willard of Durham directed the wedding.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Marie C. Brown of Raeford and Mr. Vernon W. Brown of Asheville. Parents of the groom are Dr. and Mrs. Edward D. Fram of Aspen, Colorado.

The bride wore a traditional bridal satin floor length gown with a chapel train. Alencon lace embellished with seed pearls applied the fitted bodice and Juliet elbow sleeves. Her veil of imported illusion was bordered by scalloped Venise lace and accented with lace motifs flowing from a Venise lace mantilla headpiece. She carried a very loose European flowing bouquet of roses and variegated greenery.

Mrs. Diane Guthrie of Fayetteville, was her cousin's matron of honor. She wore a gown of aqua, accented with a crystal pleated neckline outlined with ecru lace and carried a bouquet of mixed spring flowers. Honorary attendants were Miss Catherine Angle of Raeford, Miss Elaine Manning of Raleigh, Miss Wanda Seymour of Durham, Miss Shirley Kistler of Raleigh, Mrs. Cathy McKinney of Union, S.C. and Dr. Ann U. Godfrey of Garner. They wore small wrist corsages of mixed spring flowers.

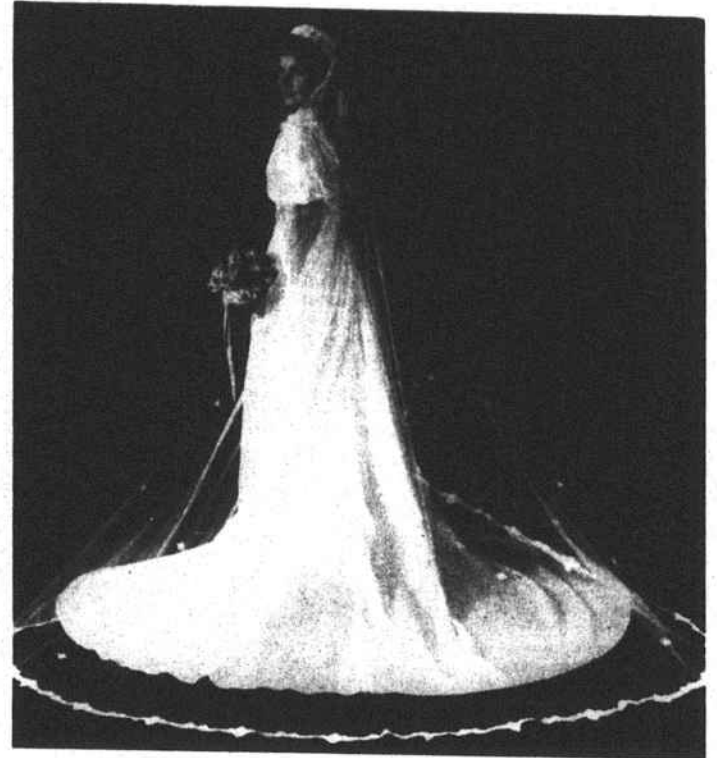

Dr. Kemp Kernstein of Edina, Minnesota served as best man. Ushers were Cam Brown of Raeford, Vernon "Butch" Brown

Births

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Monroe of Garner announce the birth of twins, Alison Eileen and Matthew Graham, on April 26. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Blue of Southern Pines are the maternal grandparents and Mr. and Mrs. Graham Monroe are the paternal grandparents. Alison and Matthew join a brother, William Eugene Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Teddy Stewart of Marshville announce the birth of a daughter, Alecia Marie, on April 14. Mrs. Stewart is the former Debbie Ward. Grandparents are Virginia Harrell of Raeford and Mr. and Mrs. Orlin Stewart of Marshville.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Thompson, of Raeford, announce the birth of a daughter, on April 16.

Mrs. Evan Keith Fram

of Buies Creek, brothers of the bride, Dan Fram of Burlington, Vermont and Steven Fram of Hadfield, New Jersey, brothers of the groom.

The mother of the bride wore a formal gown of light blue with chiffon over blouse and accordion pleated skirt. She wore a corsage of cream Cymbidium orchids.

The bridegroom's mother wore a formal gown of deep coral Qiana with matching jacket. She wore a spray of pink Cymbidium orchids in her hair.

The wedding reception was held at the Sheraton University Center immediately following the ceremony. The buffet table was covered with a white linen tablecloth and centered with an iceberg of glasses, candles and flowers. Candles, flowers and greenery were used throughout the room.

The bride graduated from UNC-Greensboro and received her masters degree from UNC-Chapel Hill. She is employed by Duke Medical Center as an employee relations representative in their Department of Human Resources. The groom graduated from Cornell University and Duke University School of Medicine. He is currently a resident in the Department of Radiology at Duke Medical Center.

After their wedding trip to Newport Beach, California, the couple will live in Durham.

REHEARSAL DINNER

Dr. and Mrs. Edward D. Fram, parents of the groom entertained the wedding party, family and out of town guests at Hunan Chinese Restaurant in Chapel Hill. After the dinner the bride-elect remembered her attendants with a gift and the groom presented his groomsmen with gifts.

WEDDING LUNCHEON

The wedding party and out of town guests were entertained at a wedding luncheon at noon on Saturday at the Searle Center located on the Duke campus. Host were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Cameron of Raeford and Mr. and Mrs. James Creed of Camden, S.C.

PARTIES

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Upchurch and Dr. and Mrs. Richard Godfrey honored the couple with a dinner party at the Upchurch home on North Main St. Three tables were set with white linen tablecloths and spring flowers.

Mrs. T.B. Upchurch Jr., Mrs. Julian Johnson Jr., Mrs. John Campbell and Mrs. R.B. Lewis were hostesses for a luncheon honoring Miss Brown on Saturday, April 21. The luncheon was at the Manor Hotel in Pinehurst.

Booklet to reduce blood pressure

Proper diet can actually help you reduce high blood pressure. It's a simple formula which cuts down on saturated fats (fatty meats, butter, lard) and substitutes polyunsaturates like margarine.

Sixty million Americans have high blood pressure, many of whom will not even know it until it's too late. Before it all comes down to medication for the rest of your life, why not begin eating right, right now. Begin by writing for your Free booklet, "A Diet for the Young at Heart," Dept DFY-1, Box 307, Coventry, CT 06238. And look to your pharmacy for concerned professionalism.
