Mrs. Neeley honored for McCain service

Mrs. Richard Neeley of Raeford was honored at the Board of Directors Meeting of the American Lung Association of North Carolina Mid-State Region when it met in Southern Pines on May 9.

Mrs. Neeley was honored for her many years of outstanding volunteer service given to the board as well as to McCain Hospital when it was a tuberculosis specialty hospital. She has also served on several Lung Association committees including the Executive Committee. She is currently on the Regional Board of ALANC representing Hoke County.

Acknowledgement of Mrs. Neeley's community volunteer work was also outlined. She is an active member of the Raeford First Presbyterian Church and several other community civic organizations.

Corrections officers receive recognition

Sandhills Youth Center, a neighboring institution of the North Carolina Department of Correction, Division of Prisons, joins with National Correctional Officers' Week to recognize and call attention to the valuable services provided by several of its correctional officers based upon their exemplary performance of duty and personal conduct.

Sandhills Youth Center proudly salutes Correctional Officers Carroll J. Koebe, Willie Martin and Willie P. Malloy for their dedicated, consistent, dependable and conscientious years of service.

Officer Koebe began his corrections career in November 1978.

Officer Martin began his corrections career in August 1973.

Officer Malloy began his corrections career in July 1978.

Their peers and supervisors cited their individual and teamwork contributions as worthy of this distinguished recognition.

Stone elected president of regional Lung Association

Harold E. Stone of Raeford was elected President of the American Lung Association of North Carolina, Mid-State Region, at the annual meeting of the regional lung association in Southern Pines on May 9, 1984.

The Mid-State Region of ALANC encompasses 12 counties in south central North Carolina including Hoke County. The regional office is located in Southern Pines.

Stone has also been appointed to the ALANC State Board of Directors which met in late April in Asheville. He will serve a two-year term on the state-wide board. Mr. and Mrs. Stone attended the Asheville meeting.

Other Hoke County residents currently serving three-year appointments to the regional board of directors include Mrs. Harold Brady, Mrs. Otis Crowder, Mrs. Richard Neeley, all who attended the Southern Pines meeting, and Ken Witherspoon, also a member of the regional and state board of directors.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Hubbard served as Honorary Christmas Seals Chairman for the 1983 campaign which raised $1,700 for the Lung Association. This will benefit patient service work and health education programs in Hoke County. They were recognized at the regional meeting in Southern Pines for their volunteer service.
