Gore-Jude couple married Saturday

Mrs. William Anthony Gore

Miss Stephanie Renae Jude and William Anthony Gore, both of Raeford were married Saturday, May 12 at 2 p.m. at the 82nd Airborne Division South Chapel in Fort Bragg. The double ring ceremony was officiated by Chaplain Daniel Wolboldt.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie E. Jude of Raeford. The parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Gore, also of Raeford.

Wedding music was provided by organist, Teresa Moser of Aberdeen and soloist Michelle Crotty, sister of the bride. Selections included "Let It Be Me" and "Just You And I".

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal gown of organza featuring a Queen Anne neckline, fitted waist, leg of mutton sleeves and a chapel length train. Chantilly lace and pearls adorned the bodice. The sleeves and skirt were accented with chantilly lace. She wore a fitted headpiece with matching lace and a fingertip illusion veil. Her colonial nosegay was of white miniature carnations, white sweetheart roses and baby's breath with lace streamers.

Kathy Orem served as her sister's matron of honor. She wore a formal gown of violet taffeta. The gown had a full gathered skirt, fitted waistline, spaghetti straps and puff sleeves. A jacket with ruffled collar completed the outfit. She carried a nosegay of white daisies, lavender daisies, purple statice and baby's breath.

Denise Jude, sister of the bride was her sister's bridesmaid. She wore an orchid gown like that of the honor attendant.

Best man was Jerry Gore, father of the groom. Ushers were Randy

Branch, Gerald Currie and Timmy Currie.

The wedding was directed by Carolyn Boose of Fayetteville.

The bride is a graduate of Hoke County High School and attended Sandhills Community College. She is employed by Safeway Finance Corp. of Raeford. The groom is a graduate of Hoke County High School and is employed by Pepsi Cola Bottling Co. of Fayetteville.

A reception was given following the ceremony by the parents of the bride at the Main NCO at Ft. Bragg. The bride's book was kept by Cindy Rogers, sister of the groom. Terri Sullivan, cousin of the bride poured punch. Cake was served by Millie Sullivan, cousin of the bride and Dot Sullivan, aunt of the bride.

After a wedding trip to Myrtle Beach, South Carolina the couple will be at home in Raeford.

A rehearsal dinner was given at the home of the groom's parents. Gifts were presented to the attendants at this time.
