Spring-Gibson wedding vows exchanged in Antioch church

Julia Lee Gibson and Keith Mitchell Spring were united in marriage Saturday, May 19 at 6 o'clock p.m. at Antioch Presbyterian Church. The Reverend Harry Poovey of Raleigh officiated the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Legrand Gibson of Antioch. She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Legrand Gibson of Antioch and Mr. and Mrs. Brooks Lee Truesdale of Mount Ida, Arkansas.

The bride attended Meredith College and received a B.S. degree from N.C. State University in Chemical Engineering. She is employed by Burlington Industries of Clarksville, Virginia.

The groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Carl Spring of Durham, is a mechanical engineer with Knott and Roberts, P.A., Engineers of Durham.

Prelude selections of classical music were presented by Cantabile String Quartet of Chapel Hill. Soloist for the ceremony was Arthur Hope Shackelford of Kinston. Ashley Burell of Raeford was organist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white silk organza featuring a sweetheart neckline. The fitted bodice was covered in silk Alencon and Schiffler embroidery lace with seed pearls. Tiny covered buttons were down the bodice back. The natural waistline extended into a cathedral train which was accented with appliques of silk Alencon and Schiffler lace. Her fingertip veil of silk bridal illusion was attached to a headpiece covered with Alencon lace and tiny seed pearls.

The bride carried a prayer book used by her mother. The bridal bouquet of white bridal roses, tiny orchids and cascading ivy was atop the Bible.

Mrs. Andrew L. Gibson, sister-in-law of the bride, attended as matron of honor. She wore a pink taffeta gown with puffed sleeves and tiny ruffles edging the sweetheart neckline. Dianne Haynie of Raleigh, Sally Lynn Maxwell, Cindy Gibson, cousin of the bride, and Brenda Maynard, sister of the groom, attended as bridesmaids. They wore gowns identical to the one worn by the bride's honor attendant.

The groom's father attended as best man. Ushers were Larry Spring of Durham, brother of the groom, Andrew Gibson, brother of the bride, Phillip Maynard of Durham, and Mike Olive and Todd Wilson, both of Charlotte.

The guest registrars were Mrs. Anne MacDonald D'Annunzio and Mrs. Gay Ivey Barnes. Nieces of the groom, Misses Amy and

Mrs. Keith Mitchell Spring

Emily Maynard served as ringbearer and flower girl. Mrs. Sara Currie Watson directed the wedding.
