LOUIE TRUIT & TLOULIADLES

Traveling food stand

This mobile farmers market is to be used this summer by local area farmers in the hopes that it will promote a good farmers' market business in Hoke County, says County Agent Willie Featherstone (left). The mobile unit will be managed by an intern of the Extension Service Wally Majek. The unit has been in other counties in the state for about two years. The location for the unit during its stay in Hoke County is right next to Thad Marks' (center) produce stand on Harris Avenue. Grower John D. Black (right) is helping with the project.

Funds distributed to Methodist programs

Seven United Methodist institutions in the North Carolina Conference shared in over $700,000 from the second distribution of the estate of Calvin M. Little of Mt. Gilead.

The distribution was made Tuesday, June 5, during the 1984 Annual Conference being held in Reeves Auditorium on the Methodist College campus. The conference, which began on Sunday, June 3, continues through noon on Thursday, June 7.

The Rev. Dr. Arthur W. Winstead, pastor of First United Methodist Church in Raeford and executor of the estate, made the distribution.

Receiving a share in the distribution and their approximate share were Methodist College, $118,000; N.C. Wesleyan College, $118,000; Louisburg College, $118,000; and the Methodist Home for Children in Raleigh, $118,000.

Also, First United Methodist Church in Mt. Gilead, $118,000; N.C. Conference Pension Fund, $59,000; and the Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc. in Durham, $59,000.

All seven recipients shared in an earlier distribution of over $1 million in estate funds in Sept., 1983. The estate was valued at $5.5 million.

Little was a United Methodist and a good friend and neighbor of Dr. Winstead while Winstead served as pastor of Mt. Gilead United Methodist Church. A bachelor, Little was a prominent land owner in Richmond and Montgomery counties.

In addition to owning over 2,000 acres of land from an inheritance, Little owned numerous stocks and bonds. He died in 1982 at the age of 90. Relatives and friends also shared in the estate.
