Attendance at Tabernacle Baptist Church was good the past Sunday morning considering that some were on vacation.

Rev. Barringer delivered the message and his sermon topic was: "Total Commitment."

The young Adult Sunday School Class held a weekend retreat at Camp Rockfish.

The Mission Action Group of the WMU at Tabernacle Baptist Church met last Monday in the home of Mrs. Mamie Adkins.

The Bible Study Group of the W.M.U. at Tabernacle Baptist Church met in the home of Mrs. Roscoe Bunday Tuesday morning.

Sunday, June 24 will be Rev. Barringer's last day in an official capacity at Tabernacle Baptist Church but the church members are pleased that the Barringers are building a home and will remain in the community. The church is also fortunate that Mrs. Barringer will remain as a staff member.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Hawkes spent a week recently with Mrs. Hawkes sister Mrs. Lester Notter and Mr. Notter of St. Louis, Missouri.

Pittman Grove Baptist Church recognized the high school and college graduates in the congregation during morning worship service Sunday. They were each presented a bible.

The W.M.U. at Pittman Grove Baptist Church had "Spring Fling" Friday night. The ladies had a hat show for entertainment, showing hats made of unusual material and design.

The Pittman Grove Baptist Church W.M.U. are sponsoring a "Sweets Auction" Friday evening June 16 beginning at 7:30 p.m. There will be assorted cakes, pies, cookies and candies to be auctioned. The public is invited to attend.

Sympathy is extended to the family of Alton Potter who died Monday, June 11. Funeral was to be Wednesday, June 13 in Raeford.

Am happy to report Mrs. Eric Wood is home after spending several weeks at Open Arms nursing home in Raeford.

Mrs. Lawrence D. Long and Mrs. Louise Watson visited Mrs. Alma Parker of Selma last week. Enroute to Selma they stopped at Carolina Pottery. Mrs. Parker returned with them to visit relatives in the area.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Long visited Mrs. Long's brother, Ross Rivers in Hartsville last week.

Mrs. Grace English spent last Tuesday at White Lake with her sister Mrs. Arthur Lee Watson.

Mrs. Lonnie Smith of Wayside visited Mrs. Alma Potter at the home of Mrs. Louise Watson last Saturday.

Lonnie Smith is a patient in a nursing home in Laurinburg.

Congratulations to Lisa Madden who was awarded the Rockfish Extension Homemakers scholarship.

Deaths & Funerals

Elizabeth Adeline Toon Epstein
Elizabeth Adeline Toon Epstein, died Friday.

She was born in Red Springs, the daughter of Elizabeth Scarborough and Henry Short Toon.

During her childhood she was called by the nickname "Did," and throughout her life she kept this name.

Did was educated at Greensboro College and Flora Macdonald College. She later entered the teaching profession in Greer, South Carolina.

After returning to Red Springs, she was married to Mitchell Epstein of Raeford.

The couple made their home in Raeford. Her husband was in the mercantile business. Did taught in Fayetteville until her retirement.

Following her husband's death, her health began to decline and she entered Open Arms Rest Home in Raeford, where her last years were spent.

Did was a devoted member of the Raeford Methodist Church. There was about her a charm and strength of personality and a sweetness of disposition that endeared her to a large circle of friends.

She always saw the good in people, her motto being "others" not herself - also she had a great love for flowers.

On Tuesday morning a graveside service was conducted by Rev.

Herman Winberry at the Alloway Cemetery, and she was buried beside her family in Red Springs.

Survivors are nieces and nephews.

In lieu of flowers contributions can be given to the Raeford United Methodist Church.

Crumpler Funeral Home served the family.

Alton Potter

Alton Potter, 73, died Monday morning in Highsmith-Rainey Memorial Hospital in Fayetteville.

Funeral services will be 3 p.m. Wednesday at the Raeford United Methodist Church by Rev. Arthur Winstead.

Burial will be in Raeford cemetery.

Survivors are his wife; Mrs. Katie Potter; two sons: Thomas A. Potter of Goldsboro and James A. Potter of Raeford; one daughter: Mrs. Woodrow McDougald of Greensboro; three sisters: Mrs. Ernest Duncan of Raeford, Mrs. May Smith of Raeford and Mrs. Clara Mewherter of Raeford; seven grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

Crumpler Funeral Home assisted the family.

Contributions can be made to the Bob Lewis class and American Cancer Society.

Free lunches offered in county this summer

The Child Nutrition Program of the Hoke County Board of Education will sponsor a summer feeding program in the following schools:

J.W. Turlington, Hoke County High School, Scurlock Elementary, West Hoke Elementary, South Hoke Elementary and Laurel Hill Church.

The program will be at no cost for all children up to 18 years old.

No child will be discriminated against because of race, color, national origin, age, sex or handicap.

The program will begin operating on June 25, and close on August 3.

The cafeterias will be closed on July 4.

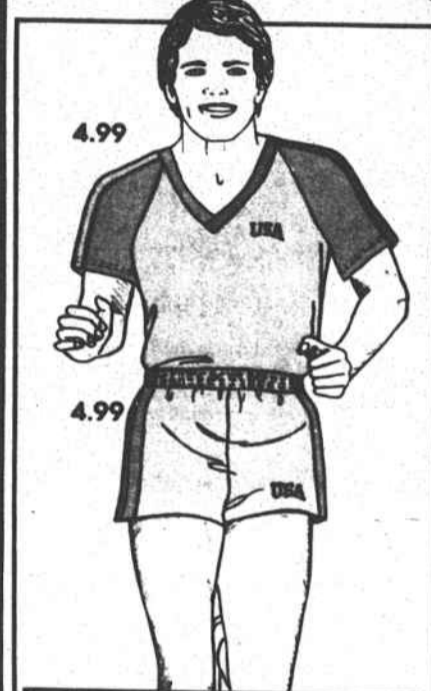

Serving time will be 11:30 a.m. - 12:30 daily, Monday through Friday.

Suggestion winner
Elton Ross, Jr. is the Safety Suggestion Winner at the Burlington Industries Raeford Plant for the month of June, 1984. For his Safety Suggestion Elton will receive a $25 pair of safety shoes and reserved parking for a month. Suggestion: The walkway to the restroom in the Warehouse from the Preparation Department needs a guardrail erected to prevent forklifts from backing into the employees when entering and exiting. At present the plan is to implement this suggestion.
