Mrs. Jay Merle Hottel

Hottel - Fann couple exchanges vows

Sherry Yvette Fann and Jay Merle Hottel were married May 26 at 2 p.m. at the First Baptist Church in Raeford. Rev. Billy C. Beaver officiated. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L.A. Lewis of Autryville. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Hottel of Raeford.

The church was decorated with ferns and palms.

An arrangement of flowers in a basket adorned the bapistry. A seven branched candelabra and a fifteen branched spiral candelabra were used on the sides of the altar. The trinity candle and kneeling bench were used to complete the decorations.

Mrs. Elga Langdon provided music on the organ for the ceremony. Soloist was Charles Hottel, father of the groom. He sang "This Is The Day", "If" and "The Lord's Prayer".

The wedding was directed by Mrs. Darlene Clark.

The bride, given in marriage by her father wore a formal gown of white embroidered organza, featuring a portrait neckline edged in scalloped lace, fitted v-point in the back with short capped sleeves. The skirt was fully gathered in the back with a chapel train. Her Juliet cap of embroidered lace held a chapel length illusion veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of gypsophilia, white roses and lavender stephanotis with lace streamers tied with love knots.

Mrs. Leigh Hottel of Fayetteville was matron of honor. She wore an evening length lavender dress and jacket with fitted bodice and front princess seaming. She carried a bouquet of silk dusty roses, lilac, and white rose buds accented with babies breath.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Joanne

Babyak of Virginia, Mrs. Joy Warren of Elizabethtown, sisters of the groom, Kim Wood of Raeford and Elaine Morris of Raleigh. They wore gowns like that of the honor attendant.

Best man was John Hottel, brother of the groom of Fayetteville. Ushers were Richard Babyak of Virginia, Mark Wood of Raeford, Mike Resop of Wilmington and Greg Morris of Raleigh.

Ring bearer was Jason Hottel, nephew of the groom.

The mother of the bride was attired in an apricot long sleeved shift dress with lace cuffs, lace yoke and mushroom pleats. The groom's mother wore a turquoise dress fashioned in a blouson style with long sleeves and high neck ruffle. Both mothers wore orchid corsages.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hottel hosted a reception given in the church fellowship hall following the ceremony. Mrs. Juanita Barh and Miss Martha Parker served. The bride's book was kept by Mrs. Helen Inman. Lilac and white rose buds decorated the top of the cake. An arrangement of pink carnations, white daisies and lavender rose buds decorated the table.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hottel entertained at a rehearsal dinner in the church fellowship hall on Friday evening.

The bride is a graduate of Lakewood High School and is employed by Fayetteville Neurodiagnostics, Inc. The groom is a graduate of Hoke County High School and is employed by DuBose Steel, Inc. of Roseboro.

After a wedding trip to Myrtle Beach the couple will be at home at 3402 Scotty Hill Road in Fayetteville.
