Tindall-Stanton vows spoken here

Linda Sue Stanton and Ralph W. Tindall of Raeford were married at 8 p.m. Sunday, June 17 at the Raeford Presbyterian Church. Dr. John C. Ropp officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Wilbert A. Stanton of Raeford and the late Mr. Stanton. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. James E. Tyndall, also of Raeford. The couple are graduates of Hoke County High School and the groom also attended Sandhills Community College.

Wedding music was provided by Chris Watkins, organist and Miss Cecelia Ropp and Miss Betty Odom, soloists. Selections included "The Wedding March", "Entreat Me Not To Leave Thee", "The Wedding Song" and "The Wedding Prayer."

The altar was adorned with an arrangement of mauve lilies, pink and white carnations, lavender asters, feverfew, white heather and pink bridal roses. Flanking the altar were two white wedding baskets filled with matching arrangements. Candle light was used with a pair of fifteen branch candelabra, a nine branch candelabra and a seven branch candelabra. A double kneeling bench was used by the bride and groom as they knelt in prayer after lighting the unity candle. The mother's pews were marked with hurricane globes and arrangements.

The bride was escorted by her uncle, Jackie Laviner. She wore a floor length gown of white silk organza featuring a Queen Anne neckline. The fitted bodice was covered with Chantilly lace and pearls. The dress featured split shadow sleeves accented by Chantilly lace appliques. The natural waistline extended into a pyramid shaped insert on the skirt and into a cathedral train. She wore a flop hat with alencon lace and seed pearls. Queen Anne lace was attached to the hat and draped down to the waistline of the gown.

She carried a cascading bouquet of orchids, lilies, lily of the valley and wedding ribbons.

Miss Betty Odom served as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Sherry Hasty of Raeford, Betty Tindall, sister of the groom, Terri Weese, cousin of the bride of Fayetteville and Delana Shaw of Parkton. Junior bridesmaids were Kim Tuttle, Connie Lee, Kim Harrell, and Dana Hagins all of Raeford. The bridesmaids wore rose gowns and the junior bridesmaids wore pink. They were of matte taffeta in the bouffant style with drop shoulder ruffles. The skirt was full and featured ruffles on the hemline. They carried cascading silk bouquets of mauve and rose orchids and assorted blossoms.

Kristin Morrison served as flower girl. She wore a long gown of pink accented with lace. She carried a basket of pink rose petals and scattered them along the aisle.

Ushers were Ronnie Ellis, Mark Posey, Gene Hasty and Jerry Goza. Ring bearer was George Britt.

The mother of the bride wore a floor length gown of aqua chiffon with empire waist and a chiffon drape around the shoulders. She had an orchid corsage.

The groom's mother wore a floor length gown of rose chiffon with pleated drape over gown. She also had an orchid corsage.

The wedding ceremony was directed by Mrs. John Ropp.

RECEPTION

The mother of the bride hosted a reception following the ceremony in the church fellowship hall. Guests were greeted by Mr. and Mrs. Neill McFadyen, Sr.

The table was decorated with an arrangement of mauve and pink flowers. Matching flowers were used around the bottom of the cake. The top of the wedding cake was decorated with a miniature bridal bouquet of roses and lilies. The register table was graced with a bud vase of pink bridal roses and a single taper in a hurricane globe.

Mrs. Jackie Laviner poured punch. Cake was served by Mrs. Rosa Cole. The bride's book was kept by her aunt Mrs. Harvey Hill.

Tea girls were Christy Laviner and Heather Britt. Goodbyes were said by Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Hasty.

For travel the bride chose a sundress of blue, pink and green. After a wedding trip to the beach the couple will reside in Raeford.

REHEARSAL DINNER

The parents of the groom were hosts for a dinner at Edinborough Restaurant on Saturday evening. The dining area was decorated with pink roses. Guests were served roast beef, green beans, potatoes, iced tea and chocolate dessert.

BRIDESMAIDS' LUNCHEON

A luncheon for the bridesmaids' was held on Saturday, June 16, at the home of Betty Odom.

Upon arrival the bride presented a corsage of daisies by the hostess.

In the dining area, places were set for twelve at two tables. The tables were covered with pink and white lace cloths. Arrangements of white daisies and pink roses adorned the center of each table.

The buffet luncheon of fried chicken, English peas, and strawberry salad was served with pineapple pie and chocolate cake for dessert.

The luncheon was hosted by maid of honor Betty Odom and her mother, Mrs. Willie C. Odom.

Birthdays

Mrs. Glass

Mrs. Carra Belle Maulsby Glass celebrated her birthday June 16 with a poolside barbeque at her home in Fayetteville. Mrs. Glass moved from Raeford in 1946. She is the daughter of the late John Selph Maulsby and Flora Isabelle Bethune Maulsby of Raeford.

About 40 guests and relatives were on hand to celebrate with Mrs. Glass. Guests from Raeford, including James Lentz, formerly of Raeford, were present and Mrs. Glass received many calls from Raeford residents.
