Mrs. Barbara Wilson, of Charlotte and Mrs. Joyce Crutchfield, of Kernersville, daughters of the couple were hostesses for the event.

Mr. and Mrs. Womble received a corsage and boutonniere of gold roses upon arrival.

Table decorations consisted of gold and white spring flowers centered on a white tablecloth.

Mr. and Mrs. Womble were married June 15, 1934 in Dillon,

South Carolina. They have two daughters, eight grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Those attending the celebration from Raeford were Mr. and Mrs.

Smith McInnis, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Posey, Mrs. Ann Lancaster and Bryan.

Shower honors Joanne Leach

Miss Joanne Leach, July 14 bride-elect of Allen Hollingsworth, was honored on June 17 with a floating shower at the home of Mrs. Floyd Hollingsworth.

Guests called between the hours of 2 and 5 p.m.

The refreshment table was decorated with a white lace tablecloth and pale green underlay. An arrangement consisting of pink silk roses and a miniature bride served as the centerpiece.

Guests were served punch, mints, nuts, cheese wafers and cake slices.

Dodson - Jordan nuptials pledged

Elizabeth Faye Jordan and Dr. William Warnick Dodson III were united in marriage on Saturday, June 23 at twelve o'clock noon at First Baptist Church, Raeford. Reverend Billy Beaver officiated at the double ring ceremony. He was assisted by Reverend Delois Brown of Spartanburg, South Carolina.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Faye Baker Jordan and Dr. Riley Moore Jordan both of Raeford. Miss Jordan, a graduate of Wake Forest University and Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville, Kentucky, is an ordained Baptist minister. She has been serving as a chaplain resident at Spartanburg General Hospital in Spartanburg, South Carolina.

Dr. Dodson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Warnick Dodson Jr. of Lemayne, Pennsylvania. He is a graduate of Emory University and Duke University School of Medicine. He has completed an internship at Spartanburg General Hospital and will be reporting for active duty as Captain Flight Surgeon in Aerospace Medicine with the United States Air Force.

The sanctuary was adorned with one large bouquet of white lilies, pink snapdragons and two dozen pink bridal roses. Flanking the bride and groom as they exchanged vows were two fifteen branch candelabra. The wedding prayer was observed as the bride and groom faced each other on the kneeling bench. Complimenting the area were also two nine branch candelabras filled with assorted greenery and to complete the scene matching ficus trees, palms and ferns were used. The bride and groom complemented their marriage vows with lighting of the unity candle.

Chris Watkins of Atlanta, Georgia was organist. Prelude selections included "Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring" by Bach, "A Mighty Fortress is our God", "Now Thank We All Our God", and portions of Handel's "Water Music."

The procession consisted of "Trumpet Voluntary" by Clarke and "Trumpet Tune in D" by Purcell. "Allegro Maestoso" by Handel was used as the recessional. Mrs. Teresa Rich of Columbia, South Carolina sang "In This Very Room" and "The Lord's Prayer." Ken Miller, Jim Forrester, and Marc Hamme sang "I Will Bless the Lord" with Ken accompanying on the guitar.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a wedding gown of ivory chiffon with Queen Anne neckline, dropped waistline, and full Bishop sleeves. The bodice of Alencon re-embroidered lace was accented with seed pearls and crystals. The veil of imported illusion was attached to a halo wreath fashioned of seed pearls and Alencon lace. The bride carried a cascading bouquet of white orchids, stephanotis, white bridal roses, gypsophila and fern.

The mother of the bride wore a pale mauve chiffon dress with full sleeves. The bodice and hemline were trimmed with matching lace. Her corsage was of rubium liliun and ribbons matching the color of her gown.

The mother of the groom wore a patina chiffon gown and a white orchid corsage with bridal ribbons. The grandmother of the bride wore a sheer American Beauty dress with a corsage of white orchids with coordinating net and ribbons.

Mrs. Don Williamson of Lumberton, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a raspberry tea length dress with ruffled sleeves and dropped waistline. She carried a cascading bouquet of rubium lilies, roses, and gypsophila.

Mrs. Alan Popp of Manchester, New Hampshire, sister of the groom, was a bridesmaid. Her dress was identical to the one worn by the honor attendant. She carried a matching cascading bouquet of rubium lilies, roses, and gypsophila.

Sharon James of Louisville, Kentucky led the litany of marriage.

Best man was Jim Mancke of Spartanburg. Ushers were Marc Hamme of York, Pennsylvania, Ken Miller of Durham, John Jordan of Raeford, and Jim Forrester of Atlanta, Georgia.

Molly Elizabeth Jordan, niece of the bride, of Greensboro, was flower girl. She carried a nosegay of pink roses and fever few. Baker Riley Jordan of Greensboro, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.

The guest registrar was Dr. Ann Godfrey of Garner.

Ryan and Ethan Popp of Manchester, New Hampshire, nephews of the groom, gave out programs prior to the wedding.

RECEPTION

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Luke McNeill, aunt and uncle of the bride. Hosting the reception were Mrs. Faye Jordan, mother of the bride, Mrs. Walter Baker, grandmother of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. McNeill. Guests were greeted by Mr. and Mrs. McNeill. They were invited into the dining room and out to the terrace by Mrs. Ken McNeill and Mrs. W.T. Gibson Jr. Mrs. Milton Jordan of Fairmont and Mrs. Julius Jordan, aunts of the bride, presided at the punch bowl in the dining room. The table was covered with an imported linen cloth. A mass arrangement of pink snapdragons, miniature carnations, baby's breath, daisy and button mums, lilies, iris, and delphinium in shades of pink and rose centered the table.

Mrs. Charles Randell of Kinston, Mrs. Joe Williams of Harriman, Tennessee and Mrs. Glenn Langdon served punch at the refreshment table on the terrace. The wedding cake was served by Mrs. Maxine Colston and Mrs. Ann Davis of Spartanburg.

Summer flowers were used throughout the house. Mrs. Jerry Tucker of Cheraw presided at the register.

Goodbyes were said to Mr. and Mrs. Wyatt Upchurch, Mrs. Jean Johnson, Mrs. Louise Sawyer, and Mrs. J.H. Austin.

Tea girls were Kim Colston, Carol Colston, Karen Langdon, Kristen Langdon, and Jennifer Cox of Louisville, Kentucky.

After a wedding trip to Florida, the couple will make their home in Lubbock, Texas.

Miss Hostetler invited to the 1984 Deb Ball

Miss Dorcas Gore Hostetler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Hostetler, will formally greet North Carolina society as a member of the 1984 Debutante Ball to be held in Raleigh, September 6, 7, and 8.

The Ball is sponsored by the Terpsichorean Club of Raleigh and has been given every year since 1923, with the exception of the years spanning World War II.

The young ladies, presented by their fathers, are chosen on the basis of family prominence in the state and their own civic, scholastic and social activities.

Eight functions will be attended by the debutantes, their families and escorts, culminating in the formal presentation at the Raleigh Civic Center on Friday night.

Throughout the summer, activities for the debutantes will be coordinated.

Births
