Doings

July 4
OLDE FASHIONED 4TH - Celebrate an old fashioned fun-filled Fourth of July in downtown Fayetteville, sponsored by The Olde Fayetteville Association. Watermelon scramble, sack races and other games will begin at 4:30 p.m. near the market house on Green Street, concluding at Cross Creek Park, also on Green Street. The Fayetteville Symphony and Fayetteville Community Chorus under the direction of Harlan Duonow will present a free concert of well-loved music at Cross Creek Park at 6:30 p.m. Hot dogs, soft drinks and balloons will be sold - or you may bring your own picnic. See you downtown on the Fourth. Come and bring all the chill!

thru Aug. 30
SHAKESPEARE FESTIVAL - The North Carolina Shakespeare Festival will present its eighth season at the High Point Theatre through August 30. The season includes KING LEAR, opening July 5, TREASURE ISLAND, opening July 11, and A STREET-CAR NAMED DESIRE, opening July 14. THE MERRY WIVES OF WINDSOR opens August 23 in High Point before embarking on a fall tour. Plans for this production will be announced later in the summer. Season tickets and group rates are available. Single tickets go on sale at the High Point Theatre, 220 E. Commerce St. (919-887-3001) at 10:00 June 13. Ticket outlets are Belk at Friendly (292-0960) in Greensboro, Lexington Civic Center (249-7875), Stevens Center (721-1945) and Rainbow News (723-0858) in Winston-Salem and Scott's Bookstore (625-5101) in Asheville. For additional information contact the Festival office at 919-889-1544.

July 4
RAFT AND CANOE REGATTA - Celebrate the 4th of July this year at the 9th Annual Lumber Raft and Canoe Regatta located near Wagram. The Regatta is a fun time for the whole family featuring homemade raft races, tube races and canoe races. "Boardwalk," a local Beach Music Band, will provide music from 11:00 a.m. until 3:00 p.m. at the race finish line at Riverton Park. Other festivities at the Park will include a "Legs Contest," "Water Balloon Contest" and "Tug of War Contest." Make plans now to join the river adventures on the fourth of July by building a raft and entering the biggest event of the year, the Annual July 4th Raft & Canoe Regatta. For further information contact Scotland County County Parks and Recreation in Laurinburg, telephone 776-0412.

July 4
BAGPIPES - The sounds of the bagpipe will welcome visitors to historic Tryon Palace on July 4th when the North Carolina Highland Regiment performs throughout the day. Stroll past the massive entrance gates. The Palace gardens and grounds are open free, 9:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m., on this commemorative day. It was 206 years ago, July 4, 1778, that New Bernians first celebrated their independence from Britain; becoming the first town in North Carolina to do so. The tradition continues. The Highland Regiment from Fayetteville will camp out on the great lawn, cook, drill, give demonstrations of their musketry and even serve duty in the sentry boxes of the colonial capitol and royal governor's mansion.

July 7
"STRIKE AT THE WIND" - "Strike at the Wind," the Indian drama which has offices in PSU's Old Main building begins its ninth session July 7 at 8:30 p.m. in the Lakeside Amphitheatre near Pembroke. Carnell Locklear, who doubles as general manager and an actor in the drama, has done an excellent job of promoting it. The drama's opening is always a highlight of Lumbee Homecoming Week, always held during the July 4 holiday week. Three of the events are held at PSU's Performing Arts Center. They are Lumbee Homecoming Gospel Sing at 2:30 p.m. Sunday, the "Little Miss Lumbee" beauty pageant at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, July 4, and the "Miss Lumbee" beauty pageant at 8 p.m. Friday, July 6.

Ag hearings - Congressman Bill Hefner (L) with the Chairman of the U.S. House Agriculture Committee, Kika de la Garza. The committee will be holding hearings in central North Carolina at the request of Congressman Hefner in order to get input for the upcoming 1985 Farm Bill. Chairman de la Garza will conduct the hearings on July 30 at Pfeiffer College in Stanly County.

July 13-Aug. 25
TOUR KENANSVILLE - Visit historic Kenansville on the LIBERTY CART tour and finish your summer evening with a performance of the outdoor drama THE LIBERTY CART or WAR BRIDES. The tours are arranged by the staff of THE LIBERTY CART through the July 13-August 25 season of the outdoor drama. To book a tour, or for additional information contact THE LIBERTY CART, P.O. Box 470, Kenansville, NC 28349 or phone (919) 296-0721.

thru Aug. 25
AT BORDEAUX - "Carousel" will play at the Bordeaux Dinner Theatre in Fayetteville Thursday through Sunday evenings for an eight-week run ending August 26. Call early for reservations for this uniquely American Rodgers and Hammerstein musical. Prior to the show a gourmet buffet dinner is served. Prices are reasonable. On Thursday and Sunday night the cost for dinner and show is $16, and on Friday and Saturday night $18. Senior citizen and military discounts are available on Thursdays and Sundays but group discounts are honored any night. The box office is open daily from noon to 6 p.m. at 323-1114. Ask about our new and improved setting arrangements.

July 2-27
COMPUTER CAMP - The Hoke County School System is offering two-week computer camps for students in grades 4-12. July 2-23 Introduction to Computers will be offered to grades 4, 5, 6, 10:15 a.m.-12:15 p.m., and grades 10, 11, 12, 1:00-3:00 p.m. July 16-27 this class will be offered to grades 7, 8, 9, 8:00-10:00 a.m. Also, on July 16-27, 1:00-3:00 p.m., an Advanced Course in Computers will be offered for students in grades 10, 11, 12. July 30-August 10 two more Introduction to Computer classes will be offered. There will be a class for students in grades 4, 5, 6, 8:00-10:00 a.m. and one for students in grades 7, 8, 9 10:15 a.m.-12:15 p.m. A registration fee of 10 dollars will be charged to cover the cost of a textbook for each participant. All classes will be limited to 25 students. Enrollment forms have been sent home by children in each school. People who want to take advantage of this opportunity should complete the form and return as indicated, by June 8.

July 2-27
COMPUTER WORKSHOPS - There will be computer inservice workshops offered this summer to Hoke County teachers beginning in July. July 2-13 from 8:00-10:00 a.m., Introduction to Computer classes; July 16-27 from 10:15 am.-12:15 p.m., Intermediate Level Computer Science; July 30-August 10 from 1:00-3:00 p.m. another Introduction to Computer class will be offered. Enrollment forms have been given to each school for distribution. Interested teachers should complete the form and return it with their 10 dollar registration fee by June 8.

Blazons

Oct. 13
FALL FEST - Winthrop College will celebrate its second FallFest on Oct. 13, 1984, with arts, crafts, food, entertainment, and more. Artists and crafts makers may call Winthrop College now for information about reserving a booth for FallFest by calling (803) 323-2279.

Sports

July 4
FREEDOM RUN - Runners who want to combine an early-morning workout with a family outing may be interested in the sixth annual N.C. Freedom Run, to be held Wednesday, July 4, in Southport in conjunction with the state's official observance of Independence Day. The Freedom Run will feature two events: a one-mile "fun run" and a five-kilometer race. Both races start at 8 a.m., with start and finish lines on the Southport waterfront. Cost of entry prior to June 30 is $3 without a T-shirt or $5 with an official Freedom Run shirt. After June 30, those wishing to enter should pay $4, or $6 if they wish to receive a souvenir T-shirt. The mailing address is N.C. Freedom Run, P.O. Box 10434, Southport, N.C. 28461. Checks should be made payable to N.C. Freedom Run. More information about other activities of the five-day celebration is available by calling the Southport-Oak Island Chamber of Commerce (457-6964) or festival headquarters (457-5578).

Events

July 4
FOURTH FESTIVAL - A nautical theme that has been absent from recent festivals will return to the 1984 Fourth of July observation in Southport July 4. Boat races and aboard-ship open houses will be part of this year's festival, which is North Carolina's official celebration of Independence Day. The oceanfront cabana at nearby Long Beach will be the starting and finishing point for the annual Freedom Regatta for small sailing craft and windsurfers. More information about entering the races is available by calling the town's Parks and Recreation Department at 278-5518. Racing will begin at 2 p.m. on Saturday.

July 4
REGIMENT BAND - The Regiment Band of the 11th North Carolina Troops will be in concert playing music from the War of the Revolution and the War Between the States during a July 4th Celebration on Old Capital Square, Raleigh, N.C. Other events are also scheduled. The ceremonies begin at 11:30 a.m. and last until 3:00 p.m. The public is invited and admission is free. For further information call: 919-485-1541, 484-0281, 733-4994.

July 4
INDEPENDENCE DAY - The 23rd Annual Independence Day Celebration will be held in Parkton, N.C. on Wednesday, July 4th from 9:30 a.m. to 6 p.m. Activities for the day include Patriotic Music, Flag Raising Ceremony, Patriotic Speaker, Congressman Charles Rose, Singing, Sky-Diving, Art and Crafts Sale. Downtown Parade, Antique Cars, Concession Stands, Street Music, Noon Day Meal, Watermelon Scramble and Fun and Games for all.

July 14-15
HORSE, BURRO DAYS - The Bureau of Land Management (BLM) will mark the fifth anniversary of the Tennessee Wild Horse and Burro Adoption Center with "Wild Horse and Burro Days," set for July 14-15 at the Cross Plains facility. For further information about Wild Horse and Burro Days just call the Office of Public Affairs at the Bureau of Land Management's Eastern States Office. The phone number is (703) 235-2840. The address is 350 South Pickett Street, Alexandria, Virginia 22304.

July 14-15
HIGHLAND GAMES - The Grandfather Mountain Highland Games and gathering of the Scottish Clans, held July 14 and 15, has once again been recognized by the American Bus Association as one of North America's Top 100 events in 1984. The colorful Gaelic celebration will begin with a special tribute to the 400th Anniversary of the landing of English colonists on North Carolina's shores in cooperation with North Carolina's 400th birthday celebration, and is widely considered one of the most appropriate vehicles for commemoration of North Carolina's and America's Anglo-Saxon heritage.

Horse lessons - Hoke County Extension Agent Alice Pettitt talks with county 4-H members during a workshop held recently at Larry Williams farm. The 4-Hers were taught horse safety, grooming and riding techniques. County youth, between ages nine and 19, who are interested in learning about horses are invited to attend a 4-H Horse Club meeting scheduled for July 10 at 7 p.m. at the Lester Building on South Magnolia Street in Raeford.
