Events

July 14-15
HORSE, BURRO DAYS -- The Bureau of Land Management (BLM) will mark the fifth anniversary of the Tennessee Wild Horse and Burro Adoption Center with "Wild Horse and Burro Days," set for July 14-15 at the Cross Plains facility. For further information about Wild Horse and Burro Days just call the Office of Public Affairs at the Bureau of Land Management's Eastern States Office. The phone number is (703) 235-2840. The address is 350 South Pickett Street, Alexandria, Virginia 22304.

July 14-15
HIGHLAND GAMES -- The Grandfather Mountain Highland Games and gathering of the Scottish Clans, held July 14 and 15, has once again been recognized by the American Bus Association as one of North America's Top 100 events in 1984. The colorful Gaelic celebration will begin with a special tribute to the 400th Anniversary of the landing of English colonists on North Carolina's shores in cooperation with North Carolina's 400th birthday celebration, and is widely considered one of the most appropriate vehicles for commemoration of North Carolina's and America's Anglo-Saxon heritage.

COOLING SUMMER -- Escaping summer's 24-hour heat means for many a cool trip down one of Mother Nature's free mountain water slides -- Sliding Rock. The 60-foot long slide on Looking Glass Creek near Asheville, attracts 350,000 visitors annually according to U.S. Forest Service estimates. About half the visitors are "sliders," according to officials; the other half are just "lookers." The average creek water temperature is 58°F. The U.S. Forest Service provides lifeguards from 10 a.m. until 5:30 p.m. between Memorial Day and Labor Day, as well as dressing rooms and showers. Picnic grounds are located adjacent to the creek just above and below the Sliding Rock area.
