Blasingame, Fitch couple wed July 7

Joanne Carol Blasingame and Robert Thomas Fitch were united in marriage on July 7 at 4 p.m. at First United Methodist Church Chapel of Decatur, Georgia.

The bride is the daughter of Brig. Gen. (Ret.) and Mrs. Josiah Blasingame Jr. of Atlanta, Georgia. The bridegroom is the son of the Rev. and Mrs. W. Kemper Fitch of Raeford. The Rev. Fitch officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The chapel was decorated with ferns and candelabras.

The bride, escorted by her father, and given in marriage by her parents, wore an antique gown of bobin net with tambour lace applique on the bodice, above-elbow sleeves, and double-tiered skirt, with short train. The waist-length veil of re-embroidered bobin net was edged in handmade lace. She wore her great-grandmother's necklace of seed pearls and sapphires, and carried a bouquet of long-stemmed sweetheart roses.

The matron of honor was Catherine Welch of Virginia Beach, Virginia. The bridesmaids included Julie Guille of Petersburg, Virginia, Sharon Kerns of Chesterfield, Virginia, Jeanne Emmerson of Stony Creek, Virginia, Tracy Bender of Houston, Texas, and Deirdre Lavieri of Atlanta, Georgia. They wore floor-length gowns of pale green and white voile, featuring tucked bodices, self ruffles at the neck and cuffs, and sashed with white satin ribbon. They carried bouquets of red roses and baby's breath. Christy Blasingame, niece of the bride, was flower girl, wearing a dress matching those of the attendants and carrying a basket of daisies.

W. Kemper Fitch III of Aberdeen, brother of the groom, was the best man. Groomsman included Josiah Blasingame III, brother of the bride, of El Paso, Texas, Toby Johnson of Aberdeen, Cary McCutcheon of Blacksburg, Virginia, Philip James of Slippery Rock, Pennsylvania and Brion Fridman of Atlanta, Georgia. The men wore gray morning coats with red rose boutonnières. W. Kemper Fitch IV, nephew of the groom, was the ring bearer. He carried a pillow made for the couple by Jeanne Emmerson.

The mother of the bride wore a matinee-length gown of beige lace over pale peach silk. The mother of the bridegroom wore a pale-blue formal gown trimmed in lace.

Following the ceremony, the bride's parents hosted a reception at the Houston Mill House in Decatur. Greeting the guests were the newlyweds and their parents. After the reception, the couple left for a week in Jamaica. On their
