Harrison-Lindsay vows exchanged in First Baptist Church June 30

Mrs. Joe Bill Harrison

Nancy Bray Lindsay and Joe Bill Harrison were married on Saturday, June 30, at half past seven o'clock in the evening at First Baptist Church in Raeford. Reverend Billy Beaver officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Claude Bernard Bray and the late Mr. Bray of Raeford. The bride, a graduate of Peace College in Raleigh, is a legal secretary in Dallas, Texas.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Delaney Boyd Harrison of Hinton, Oklahoma. He is a graduate of Southwestern State University and University of Oklahoma School of Law. He is a partner in the Gardere & Wynne law firm in Dallas, Texas.

The sanctuary was highlighted with a large arrangement of pink snapdragons, white and pink bridal roses, white astromeria lilies, pink and white carnations and gypsophila. The altar was decorated with two fifteen-branch and two seven-branch candelabra entwined with garland. Two nine-branch candelabra with floral bouquets of lavender freesia, pink and white carnations, snapdragons and astromeria lilies flanked the bride and groom as they exchanged vows. An assortment of ferns was used to complement the altar area and the vestibule of the church.

Elga Langdon of Raeford was organist, and Lester Southern of Raeford and Chapel Hill was soloist. He sang "One Hand, One Heart" from West Side Story as the ceremony commenced.

"That's the Way" was presented to solemnize the exchanging of rings; and as the couple faced each other on the kneeling bench to observe the wedding prayer, Mr. Southern sang "The Lord's Prayer." Lighting of the unity candle by the bride and groom completed the ceremony. The traditional processional and recessional were used.

The bride wore a Bianchi gown of white chiffon with full Bishop sleeves. The cuffs and the Victorian neckline with sheer yoke were trimmed with silk Venice lace appliques. The bodice, with a basque waistline, was embellished with silk, lily-of-the-valley Venice lace. The hemline of the full, gathered skirt fell into a court-length matching veil of imported illusion was enhanced with appliques of silk Venice lace, seed pearls and sequins and was attached to a headband of like appliques and silk lilies of the valley. The bride carried a cascading bouquet of white cattleya orchids, white bridal roses, pomosa fern and freesia.

The mother of the bride wore a floor-length gown of light blue summer crepe. The jacket, with full sleeves and back buttons, was accented with matching embroidered lace and satin sash. The groom's mother wore a street-length dress of light blue crepe fashioned with a high neckline and three-quarter-length sleeves. They each had a white cattleya orchid corsage with white ribbons. The parents' pews were designated by hurricane lamps with small floral arrangements.

Miss Sallie Bray of Chapel Hill, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Mrs. Marie Rouse of Richmond, Virginia, and Mrs. Patsy Hawkes of Raeford, also sisters of the bride, were bridesmaids. The junior bridesmaid was the bride's niece, Miss Kimberly Rouse of Richmond. The wore floor-length gowns of orchid taffeta, featuring Victorian necklines with sheer yokes and full elbow-length sleeves. The matching hats were accented with strands of white pearls and orchid illusion veils. Their arm bouquets consisted of pink snapdragons, lavender freesia, fern and pink and lavender streamers.

Best man was the groom's son, Brett Harrison, of Dallas. Ushers were Phil Rouse of Richmond, Virginia, and Tim Hawks of Raeford, both brothers-in-law of the bride. The groom and his groomsmen wore black Cardin tuxedos and pink-rosebud boutonnières.

The guest registrar was Mrs. Younger Snead Jr., of Raeford.
