

Made it to the top

Of course, making it to the top is no trouble for a bird. They can fly. But, this little bird sat in the top of his tree and sang...well, like a bird. Surveying all that surrounds him must have put this little winged fellow in great, high spirits. Who can blame him?

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC COLIFORM BACTERIA FOUND IN DRINKING WATER

During July, coliform bacteria was found in drinking water samples from the Wrightsboro Waterworks water system above the limit as it appears in the "Rules Governing Public Water Supplies."

Coliform bacteria is an environmental bacteria which is found in the soil and intestinal tract of warm blooded animals. The presence of coliform bacteria in drinking water indicates that some contamination has occurred.

In an attempt to correct the cause of the contamination we have done the following:

We have flushed water lines.

Check samples submitted on July 23 and 24, 1984 show the water to be free of coliform bacteria.

4-H'ers learn about fishing

Local youths got a chance to try their hand at fishing during a six hour 4-H Fishing Workshop held August 1 and 2.

Tom Pilkington, Hoke County Wildlife Enforcement Officer taught the workshop, which included information on safety, fishing laws, equipment, and kinds of fish.

After spending more time in class, the group went to a local pond to fish.

Several youths were successful in catching some fish.

Thirteen youths participated in the workshop, which was sponsored by the 4-H Program of the Agricultural Extension Services.

Langdon honored by Navy

Navy SMSN Robert G. Langdon has been named the "Up and Comer" for the Quarter of April through June on the USS Preble.

The selection for this award was determined by recommendation of a command directed board composed of the senior Chief Petty Officer in each department and the Command Master Chief.

The board considered a nominee in paygrade E-1 and E-3 from each department.

The criteria for nomination were that a person considered to be an outstanding member of the command who is considered to have demonstrated the best military performance, behavior and appearance in his department.

Langdon is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Langdon of Raeford. He entered the Navy after graduating from Hoke High School in 1983.
