Miss Freeze, Mr. Collins wed in Peace College Chapel

Lorayna Michelle Freeze became the bride of Jay Addison Collins August 4 at 2 p.m. at Peace College Chapel in Raleigh. The Reverend Leonard Doucette officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Oleta K. Lopez of Raeford and Mack L. Freeze of New Bern. She graduated from Hoke County High School in 1982 and from Peace College in 1984. She is employed by First Citizens Bank in New Bern.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dorris B. Collins of Pollocksville. He graduated from Jones Sr. High School in 1977 and from Lenoir Community College in 1981. He is employed by the Naval Air Rework Facility [NARF], Cherry Point.

Wedding music was provided by Ms. Jenni Vance.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, Mack L. Freeze, wore a long gown of white tafetta. It had a sweetheart neckline accented with tucking which extended to bodice and full sleeves. The sleeves and skirt were trimmed with Cluny lace. The skirt ended in a chapel-length train. The skirt draped over double tiers of Cluny lace accented with self-fabric, roses and sateen. Her veil illusion was trimmed with white silk flowers and was held by a halo. She carried a bouquet of red sweetheart roses, white miniature carnations and baby's breath.

The maid of honor was Melodie Ann Hopkins of Knightdale. She wore a long gown of deep pink tafetta with full sleeves and long skirt. She carried a nosegay of pink sweetheart roses, miniature carnations and baby's breath.

Bridesmaids were: Lisa Freeze Jones of Wanchese, Amy Freeze Leroux of Watertown, New York, Jodi Lynn Freeze of New Bern, sisters of the bride and Laura Lynn Williams of Shelby. They wore gowns like the honor attendant in matching light pink. They carried a nosegay of pink sweetheart roses, miniature carnations and baby's breath.

The best man was Dorris B. Collins, Pollocksville, father of the groom.

Mrs. Jay Addison Collins

Ushers were: Kenneth Collins of New Bern, brother of the groom, Henry Gouty of Trenton, Billy MacIntosh of Trenton, and Jeffery Mallard of Pollocksville.

The groom wore a grey tuxedo with pink rose boutonnières.

The best man and ushers wore grey tuxedos with pink sweetheart boutonnières.

Other members of the wedding party were the flower girl, Rebecca Ann Leroux the bride's niece and ring bearer, William Bynum III, the groom's nephew.

The bride's mother wore an egg-shell crepe dress with a square neck collar and cuffs of leaf and flower appliques on English net.

The wedding reception was held on Aug. 4 in the Sidestreet Restaurant in the historic section of Raleigh. It was hosted by Mack L. Freeze and Bee Mayo.

Refreshments included chicken drumettes, ham biscuits, stuffed mushrooms, fresh fruit, relish tray, cheese ball, Swedish meat-balls, punch, nuts, mints and the traditional wedding cake. The restaurant was decorated in a country motif with fresh summer flowers.

The rehearsal dinner was held on Aug 3 at Ballentine's, Cameron Village; at Raleigh. It was hosted by the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dorris B. Collins for members of the wedding party and out of town guests.

After a wedding trip to Charleston, South Carolina the couple will live at 1727-A Elmwood Street, New Bern.
