Miss Teal wins contest

Emily Teal, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Teal of Laurinburg and granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. J.L. Teal of Raeford, has won the state title of North Carolina Modern Miss for 1984.

Emily won a college scholarship and an all-expenses paid trip to Fort Worth, Texas, where she will represent North Carolina in the national contest.

She is 17 years old and a rising senior at Scotland High School. During the pageant, which was held August 18 in Charlotte, she performed a modern dance for the talent competition. Participants were judged also on scholastic and civic achievements, interviews, poise and personality.

Emily was also chosen "Miss Congeniality" by the other pageant participants.

Johnson - Wade couple married

Virginia Wade became the bride of James Johnson, June 30, in a double ring ceremony officiated by the Reverend Patrick Burt at the Cumberland County Park Waterfall in Fayetteville.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Annie R. Ray of Raeford. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. James Johnson of St. Pauls.

Music for the occasion was presented by Mrs. Alice Lafond Green of Fayetteville.

Flowers were provided by Brock's Florist of Raeford.

The bride given in marriage by her brother, wore a full length baby blue Victorian style dress, made of satin and chiffon covered with sequins. A full length train was attached to her hat which was sequin covered. The bridal bouquet was of carnations in rainbow hues.

Maid of honor was Bennie Richardson of Raeford. Bridesmaids were: Lochel Bilbee, Diann McLean, Denise Milhouse, Joyce Sinclair, Denetta Galberth and Margie Johnson, sister of the groom.

They wore full length, off shoulder rainbow colored dresses made of satin covered with chiffon.

The flower girl was Rena Kelton. She wore a long white silk and chiffon dress, carrying a basket of roses.

The ring bearer was Curtis Wade wearing the same attire as the ushers.

The groom wore a white tuxedo with a baby blue cummerbund and cut-away tails.

Best man was Marlowe Cogdell. Ushers were Stanley Underwood, Jerry McCrowe, Kim Thompson, Jasper Lewis, Thomas Monroe and Don Cagdell. Honorary groomsmen were Curtis Ray. They wore the same attire as the groom.

The wedding was directed by Mrs. Arlene S. McKoy of Raeford.

The bride's parents entertained guests at the Ramada Inn in Fayetteville. For refreshments there was a five-tiered cake in rainbow colors, finger sandwiches, peanuts, and punch.

After a week in New York City and Niagara Falls, the bride and groom will live in Raeford. Both are employed by Burlington Mills of St. Pauls.

Mrs. James Johnson
