Art Department works with crafts

Stitching, tacking and tying were the focus as the Art Dept. of the Raeford Woman's Club meet Sept. 11. Preparing items for sale to raise ways and means money was the program plan.

Dolls and kitchen pretties were made for donation to the Halloween Carnival Country Store and for sale to help underwrite other projects. The group plans to donate money to the Hoke Symphony Chapter, buy books for the Hoke Library, and help with the Woman's Club Campership Project.

The meeting at the Library Conference Room was begun with a salad covered dish supper and an update on Club business and news. New department members and guests were welcomed and plans for an October trip to Jugtown were made.

Education Dept. holds meeting

Mrs. Ellen Willis was hostess when the Education Department met on September 4. Chairman Mary Helen Senter presided.

Business discussed included the presentation of a book to the Hoke County Public Library. This book will be given to honor the memory of Mrs. Mamie Gatlin, a member of the Education Department for many years.

The needs of the N.C. Symphony were brought to the group and a donation of $25.00 was pledged.

Plans for the October meeting include the preparation of "skinny books" to be given to Hoke Remedial Reading Labs. There will be special guests to help cut and paste. The books will help recognize American Education Week.

"English Travel" was the program topic. Mrs. Mary Virginia McFadyen told of her trip with the North Carolina delegation to commemorate the 400th Anniversary of the Roanoke Voyages. Mrs. Senter spoke of her summer tour through England and into Europe.

This department will be selling Tupperware and Danny Duzetts this month as money-raising projects. Several members will be preparing refreshments for the Symphony members' visit in October.

Public Affairs concerns slated

Share Your Christmas, the Club Membership Drive, and the October Golf Tournament were the topics when the Public Affairs Department met on September 4. The meeting, held in the Library Conference Room, was hosted by Mrs. Eloise Roberts, Miss Isabel McFadyen, and Miss Sarah Lynch. Mrs. Sadie Constantine, Chairman, presided.

The focus of the meeting was planning for the Club year. The department intends to seek new members who are interested in community service. Many volunteers are needed to carry out the co-ordination of Share Your Christmas and the money-raising Golf Tournament.

Herbs topic for Garden Dept.

On Tuesday afternoon, September 4, members of the Garden department of the Woman's Club of Raeford visited the Rasland Farm in Godwin, N.C. The owners, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Tippett, gave them a tour of their Herb Gardens and identified and explained the uses for their vast array of herbs.

They explained that herbs can be characterized into four groups; for cooking, medicinal, dyes, and fragrance. Although the Tippetts started their herb farm just three years ago, it has grown into a big business of processing and marketing of herbs.

Herb punch was served the garden club members from a deck overlooking the South River.

Personals

Family and friends of Robert Gatlin gathered to celebrate his 75th birthday on Labor Day at his pond house. The luncheon was outdoors and included a cake which had been decorated for him by Mrs. Linda Richards.

Mr. and Mrs. Tim Hunter of Mebane visited this weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Leach.

Mrs. Margaret Winstead is now recuperating at home in Raeford following her neurosurgery at Wake Medical Center.
