Lermer-Floyd nuptials spoken in Rose Hill church Sept. 2

Sharon Elaine Floyd of Rose Hill became the bride of Stephen Carl Lermer of El Paso, Texas in a double ring ceremony Sunday, September 2 at four o'clock in the afternoon at the Rose Hill United Methodist Church. The Reverend Leonard Doucette officiated, assisted by the Rev. John White.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Earl Floyd of Rose Hill. She is a 1984 graduate of the University of North Carolina at Wilmington. Her B.A. degree is in Sociology with emphasis in the Criminal Justice field. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Max Carl Lermer, of Asheville. He is a 1980 graduate of Auburn University and is a Senior Project Engineer for Surgikos, a Johnson and Johnson Company in El Paso, Texas.

The church altar was flanked by four palms and box wood greens with two fifteen-branch brass candelabras. Tree candelabras were used on each side of the altar. There were a double kneeling bench and two arrangements of white mini carnations, mums, static and baby's breath at the altar. Family pews were marked with greens and white satin bows.

Wedding music was provided by Mrs. Bizzell Johnson, organist, and pianist, Mrs. James Wynne. Soloists were Mrs. Dean Whaley and Carroll Buckner. Selections included "The Wedding Song", "You and I" and "The Wedding Prayer." Mrs. Johnson rang the chimes just prior to the processional.

Escorted to the altar by her father and given in marriage by her parents, the bride wore a wedding gown of white quiana designed with an empire waist and a chapel train. The gown featured Venice lace embroidered with pearls on the neckline, bodice and long tapered sleeves.

Her chapel veil of illusion, sprinkled with Venice lace motifs, fell from a Camelot cap, and she carried a bouquet of white bridal roses and Fuji mums.

Miss Wendy Floyd, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor. She wore a gown of blue organza which was styled with ruffled-off-the-shoulder neckline, a fitted bodice and a natural waistline. The full, gathered skirt featured a pick-up bustle at center back accented with an organza rose and a ruffled hemline. She wore a crownless blue derby hat with silk flowers and white ribbon. Her bouquet was styled with a mixture of summer flowers with white streamers.

Bridesmaids were Miss Sheila Barber and Miss Kim Johnson of Wilmington; Emma Latham of Durham; and Helen Floyd, cousin of the bride, of Goldsboro. They wore gowns and hats identical to those of the bride's honor attendant and carried nosegays of mixed summer flowers.

Honorary bridesmaids were Miss Cari-Abatiello, Miss Lisa Moore, Miss Melissa Moore, Miss Melissa Morgan, Miss Tracy Tesh and Miss Linda Williams, Alpha Delta Pi sorority sisters. They wore short dresses of pastel colors and pink carnation corsages.

The bridegroom chose as his best man, his father, Max Carl Lermer, of Asheville. Groomsmen were Mike Flemming of Eden; Mario Pino of Forest Hills, New York; Tom Estep of Parkersburg, West Virginia; and Sid Stanley, cousin of the bride, of Raleigh.

The mother of the bride, Mrs. Billy Floyd, wore a formal raspberry crepe gown. The gown featured a V-neckline, fitted bodice and long fitted sleeves. The pleated skirt fell from an empire waistline with a satin cummerbund. Her gown was accented with a corsage of pink roses.

Mrs. Max Lermer, mother of the groom, wore a cream floor length gown of satin peau-de-soie and lace. The bodice front and back gathered into a lace yoke with a round neckline. The full length sleeves with lace insertions gathered at the wrist. A bias cummerbund accented the waistline. She also wore a corsage of pink roses.

Seated as honored guests were Mrs. Herbert Polston of Raeford, maternal grandmother, and Mr. and Mrs. Earl G. Floyd also of Raeford, paternal grandparents, of the bride. They wore pink roses.

The wedding ceremony was directed by June Stanley of Fayetteville and Mrs. Gene Polston of Gastonia, aunts of the bride.

Mrs. Jim Baucom of Gastonia and Terri McKoy of Charlotte, cousins of the bride, presided at the registries in the two vestibules of the church.

WEDDING RECEPTION

Immediately following the ceremony the parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Floyd, entertained the wedding party and wedding guests at a reception in the church fellowship hall.

Greeting guests at the door were Mr. and Mrs. Loney Lanier of Rose Hill and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Floyd, aunt and uncle of the bride, of Goldsboro. Carolyn Briggs of Rocky Mount, was hostess-at-large.

The bride's table was covered with a floor length white lace cloth and centered with a five-branched candelabra and mixed summer flowers. Melanie Carawan of Greensboro poured punch from a silver bowl. The five-tier wedding cake was served by Mrs. Steve English of Teachey and Lisa Moore of Fuquay-Varina.

The bride's book was kept by Cari Abatiello of Wilmington.

An easel held the bride's wedding portrait.
