Lunsford, Moreau wed

Debbie Ann Moreau of Texas City, Texas and Charles Bradley Lunsford, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Lunsford of Raeford, were married on Saturday, September 15 at the First Baptist Church of Raeford. The Rev. Billy C. Beaver officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The sanctuary was decorated with greenery and yellow roses. A seven branch candelabra were used with the double kneeling benches. The mothers' pews were marked with candles in hurricane globes and arrangements of greenery. Candles were lit by Greg Jackson and Dale Lynn.

A program of traditional wedding music was presented by Mrs. Glenn Langdon, organist. Mrs. Kenneth Barnes sang "The First Time Ever I Saw Your Face" and Kent Locklear sang "The Wedding Song" and the closing prayer.

The bride wore a designer gown of white organza which had a victorian neckline and a sheer yoke outlined with a deep ruffle of Wedgewood lace. The dress had sheer bishop sleeves and the soft skirt swept back to a cathedral train. Her matching hat had lace and Schiffler embroidery covering the brim. She carried a cascading bouquet of white bridal roses, miniature yellow roses, yellow button carnations and freesia.

Miss Freida Christie of Texas City served as maid of honor. She wore a silver blue gown with a long sleeved jacket accented with ruffles. She carried a spray of long-stemmed yellow roses and gypsophila.

Miss Delissa Lunsford and Miss Eula Lunsford of Raeford, sisters of the groom, and Miss Sheila Calloway of Wilmington served as bridesmaids. They were dressed and carried flowers just like those of the maid of honor. Each attendant wore a pearl choker, gifts from the bride.

Charles W. Lunsford served as his son's best man. Jeff Lunsford of Raeford, brother of the groom, Greg Jackson of Arabia, cousin of the groom and Dale Lynn of Camas, Washington served as ushers.

The mother of the groom wore a princess-line gown of soft blue which had a matching jacket and a corsage of white silk camellias.

The ceremony was directed by Mrs. Eugene Chalaire. In the vestibule of the church was a Bible, open to the story of Ruth and marked by a single long-stemmed yellow rose.

RECEPTION

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church fellowship hall. A garden setting was created by flowering plants, ferns. There were arrangements of yellow roses on the refreshment table, and the registry table. Yellow chrysanthemums and greenery surrounded the three-tiered wedding cake.

Guests were greeted by Mr. and Mrs. Mac Sessoms. The bride's registry was attended by Miss Beth Kay of Sanford, cousin of the groom. Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Williams said good-byes.

Mrs. Raymond Kay, Jr. of Sanford and Mrs. Archie Clark of Raeford, aunts of the groom, poured punch. Mrs. Neil A. Jackson of Arabia and Mrs. Carl Nunemaker of Nags Head, also aunts of the groom, served cake.

Mrs. Charles Lunsford

Tea girls were Misses Aprille Williams, Kim and Kristie Sessoms, Ernest Davis, Mrs. Mawyer Calloway, and Mrs. J.E. Douglas helped with the reception.

The bride is a 1979 graduate of Texas City High School and was employed at the International Medical Center of Galveston, Texas. The groom is a 1982 graduate of Hoke High School and is serving with the U.S. Air Force in RAF Alconbury, England.

After a short wedding trip in the Carolinas, the couple will make their home in the village of Over, in the Cambridgeshire District of England.

Mrs. McFadyen heads history museum drive

Mrs. Neill McFadyen is the Hoke County chairman of the North Carolina Museum of History Associates 1984 Membership Campaign. Members of her local committee are Mrs. J.H. Blue, Mrs. R.G. Townsend Jr., Miss Caroline Parker, Mrs. H.C.

Roberts, and Mrs. Charles Hostetler, District Chairman.

The campaign began recently with a luncheon and orientation session at "Three Chimneys" the Pinehurst home of Mr. and Mrs. J.J. Slade.

The Museum Associates, a 9,000-member statewide support group for the North Carolina Museum of History and 24 state historic sites, provides educational programs and artifact displays for every county of the state.

Campaign volunteers were the first to preview a new museum program, "North Carolina's First Ladies," which was produced and funded by the Museum Associates. The audiovisual program features gowns in the museum collection which belonged to the wives of 23 of North Carolina's governors, beginning with the Revolutionary period to the present.

In addition to the gowns, the audiovisual shows portraits, artifacts, and memorabilia, providing additional information about the personalities and accomplishments of this state's First Ladies.

According to Mrs. McFadyen, "Now that North Carolina history is once again a required subject at the eighth grade level after a 13-year lapse, the Museum Associates has funded several educational resources and audiovisual programs for every eighth grade classroom in the state." Last year the Museum Associates used membership funds to provide an audiovisual entitled "The Roanoke Voyages/America's 400th Anniversary" for all schools in the state that include an eighth grade. Later this year a cassette tape and filmstrip of "North Carolina's First Ladies" will be mailed to every school in Hoke County which includes the eighth grade.

The "North Carolina's First Ladies" program reflects the role of women in North Carolina history; and, along with serving as an aid in teaching history, it will be shown at Museum of History Associate-sponsored Museum Days across the state. These Museum Days, for members and prospective members of the History Museum, will often include as guest of honor one or more of North Carolina's living First Ladies.

Mrs. McFadyen noted that museum memberships begin at $15 and may be obtained by calling any member of the Hoke County Committee.
