Lumber Bridge News

By Lib Sumner

Attendance was fair at the Baptist Church Sunday. Preaching is on the second and fourth Sunday's each month.

Homecoming, Sunday, October 28. Revival, Sunday, October 29-31. Robeson Baptist Association Meeting, October 25-26.

Mrs. F.R. Weber taught the ladies class Sunday.

Lesson title, "Life in the Spirit." Included with the message was a synopsis of her trip to the Old Country when she was 21 years of age.

Maps and pictures were shown and Mrs. Weber read her Diary of her several months' stay.

The class had looked forward to this lesson, and everyone enjoyed it very much.

The W.M.W. held their regular monthly meeting Thursday night at the Education Center.

The devotional was given by Lois Sumner. Minutes were read by Betty Lou McGougan and, the program was given by the president, Pearl Dew.

The new officers were elected for the 1984-85 year and new projects were discussed.

The meeting closed with prayer by Flata Schell.

Others attending were: Verna McGougan, Mary Ammons, Dot McGougan, Lib Sumner, Pauline Ratley and Mrs. Mary Prevatte.

Refreshments were served by Flata Schell.

The young Women of the Baptist Church held their monthly meeting on Monday night with Mrs. Patti Lewis as the guest speaker. Present: Pam Lewis, Jean Thompson and Wanda Ammons.

After the meeting refreshments were served: pound cake, nuts, mints and punch.

Mrs. Gracie Hopkins was, recently, in Mt. Airy visiting relatives and spent a week in Laurel Fork, Va. with her aunt, Mrs. Myrtle McGraddy.

Mrs. S.E. Sumner, Mr. and Mrs. Ricky Lewis, Sidney Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. John Sumner, Selina, John and Angelia of Fayetteville, Kimberly and Kristy McMillan, Jenny Lewis, and Mr. and Mrs. Timmy Gray, Angelia and Timmy of Fayetteville spent Friday at the zoo in Asheboro.

Walter Edge of Raleigh was dinner guest of Ms. Lib and Lois Sumner on Saturday.

Mrs. A.T. Beck returned home Saturday after a two weeks' visit with her mother, Mrs. Sylvia Lieben in Tuscon, Arizona.

Good job

For the last 25 years, Jeanette M. Williamson has been doing anything possible to help out around the ASCS office in Raeford. Last week, she was presented a certificate of recognition by Hoke County Executive ASCS Director John Currin. In 1983, Williamson served the farmers of the county above and beyond the call in assistance to the administration of the Payment in Kind Program. The award came from the ASCS State office in Raleigh. Williamson, who lives on Bethel Road in Raeford, began working at ASCS on September 16, 1957.
