Woman's Club

Education
Garden

Public Affairs
The Arts

Last week three departments of the Woman's Club met to do final organizing for the golf tournament to be held on October 27 and 28. This event, to be held at the Arabia Golf Course, is to be the Club's major money-raising project.

Each department member was given an assignment for the tournament. Posters are being made by each department for publicizing the tourney. A "mock" tournament will be held at the course on October 24 to help the workers do their jobs more efficiently.

Clubwomen were reminded of their responsibilities for refreshments for symphony members.

The date of the first Open Meeting of all four departments has been set for November 13 at the Hoke Public Library. The Education Department will host this meeting. The regular meeting time would conflict with poll watching on Election Day. All Clubwomen were reminded to vote on November 6.

Public Affairs

The Public Affairs Department invited State Representative Daniel H. DeVane to talk to them about his work as a legislator. He invited the group to visit the Legislative Building as his guests.

The group met in the home of Mrs. Peggy McBryde. Mrs. Mary Chestnutt, Miss Caroline Parker, and Mrs. Justin Plummer were also hostesses.

Education

The members of the Education Department met at the Library to make "skinny books" to be presented to the Hoke County Schools for American Education Week. After the work, the members were treated to finger foods and hot punch prepared by hostesses Mrs. Joan Balfour, Mrs. Vicky Balfour, and Mrs. Jessie Neeley.

Garden

The Garden Department met at the home of Mrs. Jean Adcox where there were fall decorations inside and outside. The hostess had used pumpkins, pine cones, and "roadsidia". Mrs. Lyda Jordan and Mrs. Charlotta King, co-hostesses, served dainty foods and hot-spiced apple juice from a table decorated with pink roses and caladiums.

Mrs. Kathleen Jones presented a program on making fall arrangements using grapevine and "country" materials. Members were given packages of potpourri.

Arts

The Arts Department will meet on October 13 for a Fall outing to Jugtown. The members will meet at the Library at 9:00, visit potters, see the Fall foliage in the Sandhills, and stop in Pinehurst for lunch. Women who are interested in being a part of the Arts Department Fun-With-Art Outings are invited. Meet the group at the Library.
