UDC October meeting held

The Raeford U.D.C. Chapter held its October meeting at the home of Miss Isabel McFadyen with Miss Sarah Lytch and Mrs. Ruby Penney, co-hostesses.

The devotional was led by Mrs. Pauline Pittman.

Mrs. Treva Koonce, the president, presided and led the Ritual, allegiance and salutes to the flags. "The Bonnie Blue Flag" and "Dixie" were sung by the group.

A membership certificate was presented to Mrs. Sadie McLean.

The president reported that the chapter received two honors at the State meeting held recently in Greensboro.

These were a certificate for a superior rating Chapter for 1984 and a silver cup for historical work. The cup is engraved with the name of chapter and kept in the State Headquarters in Raleigh.

It was voted unanimously to give Mrs. Mellie McFadyen honorary status for her many years of faithful service to the chapter.

The chapter went on record giving the Hoke County Historical Society 100% support and cooperation.

The program of the month - "Financing the Confederate States" was presented by Miss Josephine Hall. A piece of Confederate money was on display.

During the social hour refreshments, carrying out the Halloween motif, were served by the hostesses.

Woodmen attend convention

Thirteen members of the local Woodmen of the World Lodge 6179 attended the annual Cape Fear District Convention in Elizabethtown, Thursday evening, October 11.

Those in attendance were Frances Anderson, Evelyn Ashburn, Etta Mae Barnes, Peggy Calloway, Hestel Garrison, Mary Ruth Haire, Bertha Hendrix, Sadie McCrimmon, Fleeta Maxwell, Louise Scott, Irene Smith, Louise Taylor and Ruth Wilkerson.

Field Representative for the Raeford area, Jack Knowles of Fayetteville, was also present.

District President Florence Lennon presided over the business session. Three Lodge Activity Reports out of all submitted from the District were selected to be presented during this meeting. The report from Lodge 6179 was one of the three selected and this was presented by Evelyn Ashburn, secretary.

Senator Henson Barnes was

Master of Ceremonies at the banquet. National President Nick T. Newberry of Omaha, Nebraska was guest speaker. State Manager Harvey Bedsole also spoke to the group. A delicious ham and turkey dinner with all the trimmings was enjoyed by the 300 plus Woodmen members present.

Local Lodge 6179 was honored to have its president, Mary Ruth Haire, installed as Cape Fear District President for the year 1985.

Thomas-Crawford engagement set

Junior Woman's Club holds membership fete

Guests enjoyed a buffet dinner as the Raeford Junior Woman's Club held its annual membership dinner October 15, 6:30 p.m., at the Civic Center.

Entertainment was provided by second vice-president Betty Odom. Miss Odom sang several popular songs for the group.

President Mrs. Boyce Falls then called the October meeting to order.

She extended a welcome to the prospective members and began a brief history of the club, now in its 10th year.

Club members Mrs. Ken Booker and Mrs. Robert Britt gave brief accounts of the club's two plays sponsored in past years.

Miss Odom, membership chairman, then introduced guests and distributed door prizes to guests and members.

A business meeting followed. Mrs. Falls encouraged members to support fall projects: a fashion show, quick meals workshop, and pregnancy health fair.

Further plans were made for the Christmas home tour, December 2, and several new projects were discussed.

Cox honored

Barbara Cox, the October 20th bride-elect of Harry Walters Jr., was honored at a surprise Lingerie Shower at the home of Mrs. Roy Whitaker on Saturday, October 6. Co-hostess was Mrs. Alan Walters.

Delicious refreshments were served.
