The Arts

The Raeford Woman's Club is sponsoring a golf tournament Saturday, October 27 and Sunday, October 28 at the Arabia Golf Course. A $30 entry fee, the cost for both days, includes green fee, riding cart, gifts, and refreshments for each participant.

The club hopes the event will be supported well by the public because all profits will be used to benefit community needs.

A special thanks is extended to several students at Upchurch and at Hoke High who helped make posters to publicize this event. From Hoke High School, senior Noel Jones, (Homecoming Queen for 1984-85), made three attractive posters.

From Upchurch, Angelina Taylor, Denise Evans, Sabrina Holt, Thomas Murray, Markus Dennis, Earl Smith, and several others made several posters.

The Upchurch students are from Mrs. Eloise Carter's art classes. A special "thank you" is also extended to her for allowing her students to work on this project.

A mock tournament will be held Wednesday, October 24 for all club members to help them prepare for Saturday's event.

Mr. and Mrs. Blackman Tew

Tews celebrate 50th

On Sunday, October 14, the children of Mr. and Mrs. Blackman Tew honored their parents on the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary. A reception was held in the Beulah United Methodist Church Fellowship Hall. The Tew's children are Mr. and Mrs. John D. Tew of Florida, Johnny B. Tew of Aberdeen and Jerry Tew of Raeford.

The food table was decorated with gold candelabra and yellow and white carnations. There was a three-tiered anniversary cake, decorated with gold roses and candles. Several types of finger foods and punch were served. The reception was catered by Mrs. Coleman Crumpler.

Many friends and relatives came to celebrate and guests were greeted by Mrs. Jessie Honeycutt who stood at the Guest Register. Cake was served by Mrs. Paul Butler, and punch was poured by Mrs. Carl Butler. Mrs. Louis Worley attended the gift table and Mrs. Olivia Butler took pictures. Mr. and Mrs. A.D. Williams said goodbyes at the door.

'Quick meals' workshop on tap

On October 29 a program entitled "Quick Meals For Busy Homemakers" will be presented by Hoke County Agricultural Extension Service, in cooperation with the Raeford Junior Woman's Club. The workshop will be held at 7 p.m. in the Lester Building on South Magnolia Street.

A demonstration on preparing several quick dishes will be given by Alice Pettitt, Home Economics Extension Agent. Information on shopping tips, meal preparation, freezing dishes, using mixes and other helpful hints will also be given.

The workshop is open to the public and there is no charge. Interested persons may register for the workshop by calling 875-2162 between 8:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m.

Chill pickles before serving. This helps crisp them and enhances the flavor.
