US Savings Bonds sell $31,000 here for third quarter

Sales of Series EE Savings Bonds in Hoke County during July-September of 1984 totalled $31,486.

Total sales for the first nine months amounted to $94,416 ac-Richard Jones. District Director, U.S. Savings Bonds Division. July-September sales of U.S.

Savings Bonds in North Carolina amounted to $13,689,597

Sales for the first nine months of 1984 amounted to $41,050,314, up almost 1 percent from a year ago.

This represents 65.9% of the state's dollar goal of $62,300,000.

Nationally, sales for the period January-September amounted to $3.07 billion, the highest for the nine-month period since 1980. January-September redemptions totalled $4.9 billion, 4 percent above the same period a year ago. Except for last year's $4.7 billion, redemptions were the lowest for any January-September since 1975. With more than $73 billion in Savings Bonds outstanding, the bond program is saving the Treasury, and taxpayers, nearly $2 billion annually in interest costs on the debt.

The market-based interest rate for Series EE Savings Bonds issued between November 1, 1984 and April 30, 1985 is 10.94% for their first semi-annual interest period.

This is the fifth semi-annual rate to take effect since market-based, variable rates were introduced on November 1, 1982, and represents a significant increase from the May-October rate of 9.95 percent.
