An instrumental ensemble will play a special arrangement of "What Child Is This" with piano, organ, flute, violin and handbells. Other selections to be sung by the choir are: "Silent Night, Holy Night," by F. Gruber, "Christmas Carol Medley," by Bruce Ballinger, and "O Holy Night" by R. Adams.

Everyone is invited to attend the service and the social to be held immediately following the service in the Stamps Fellowship Hall.

Share Your Christmas seeking contributions

The Raeford Woman's Club and other volunteers are once again working to make SHARE YOUR CHRISTMAS a success for needy Hoke County families.

The success of this endeavor depends on the generosity of the people of this county. We invite churches, civic organizations, merchants, business people and private individuals to contribute to SHARE YOUR CHRISTMAS so that the holiday season may be a little brighter for some needy family.

Contributions of money, canned or dried food, toys, bed and bath linens and clothing will be gladly accepted. If clothing is given, it should be in reasonable condition and clean. It would be helpful if the size is attached to each garment.

Of particular need is children's clothing, of all sizes (infants through teens).

All contributions and all persons wishing to apply for assistance should come to the Hoke County Library during the following times; Thursday 29 November and each Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday through Tuesday 11 December. The hours on Tuesday and Thursday are 1 p.m. til 5 p.m. and Saturday 9 a.m. until 12 noon. All contributions are needed no later than Monday 17 December.

Monetary contributions may be mailed anytime between now and 17 December to SHARE YOUR CHRISTMAS, c/o The News-Journal, Post Office Box 550 Raeford N.C. 28376, or SHARE YOUR CHRISTMAS, P.O. Box 582 Raeford, N.C. 28376.
