Announcements

Nov. 27, 28 AMADEUS - The Fayetteville Theatre announces auditions for its January production of "Amadeus", written by Peter Shaffer ("Equus," "Kramer vs. Kramer," "E.T."). The longest running drama in recent Broadway history, the play describes the bitter rivalry between Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart and his contemporary, Antonio Salieri. Needed are adult actors and actresses to fill the many roles available. Scripts will be available for reading in the Resource Room at the Anderson Street Branch of the Cumberland County Library. For more information, please call the Little Theatre between 2 and 6 p.m.

FARMERS HOME HOURS - The Farmers Home Administration county office will be open to the public from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday through Friday. The work hours of the county office will continue to be from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday. The change in office hours will allow more timely service. The county supervisor's office hours will be from 9 a.m. to 12 p.m. on Monday and Wednesday, during which time he will meet on a first come first served basis. All other times will be by appointment only.

thru Dec. 14 SHARE YOUR CHRISTMAS - The Raeford Woman's Club is once again undertaking the responsibility of co-ordinating SHARE YOUR CHRISTMAS. Referrals may either be made with the knowledge of the family/individual or without. This may vary according to who is doing the referring. Your support and participation in identifying families/individuals is needed to make SHARE YOUR CHRISTMAS a success. When referring a family/individual, complete a SHARE YOUR CHRISTMAS referral. Give the family/individual a copy, forward one copy to SHARE YOUR CHRISTMAS, c/o The News-Journal, Post Office Box 550, Raeford, N.C. 28376, and keep a copy for yourself if you wish. If the family/individual does not have knowledge of the SHARE YOUR CHRISTMAS referral, forward one copy to the same address and again you may keep a copy. Questions about SHARE YOUR CHRISTMAS may be directed to Mrs. Clara B. Pope, 875-3868 or 875-4106 or Sadie Costantino at 875-4750.
