

Food offerings
In keeping with the Thanksgiving Season, the first grade classes at Scurlock School brought food items to share with a needy family. The family will be chosen by the Department of Social Services County of Hoke. This idea was prompted by Mrs. Mildred Mitchell.

Students garner ice cream
Third graders in Mrs. Sandra Barnes class at Scurlock were given free ice cream on Wednesday, November 21 for having the largest number of parents attend the PTA meeting on November 20.

Savings bond winner

Honored teacher
Mrs. Brenda Edwards was recognized by the faculty of Scurlock for representing Scurlock in the Teacher of the Year competition. She was pinned with a corsage of bronze buttons and a football mum. The corsage was pinned during the PTA meeting.

Top volunteer
Brenda Floyd has been named the Volunteer of the Month by the faculty at J.W. Turlington School. Floyd is known about the campus for her generosity, kindness and consideration.

December

Without strong teeth, you might not be able to enjoy some of your favorite foods. Milk and foods made from milk give your body the calcium it needs to build healthy teeth and bones. Milk foods are fun foods, too—ice cream, yogurt, and cheese. Milk is white, snow is white. For many of you, December means snow.
