9th graders unbowed

The Ninth Grade Girls Basketball team entered their third week of play Monday undefeated in four games.

On Thursday, December 6, the girls opened their season by stomping Anson 62-19.

High scorers in that game were Kesha Bronson with 20 points and Yvonne Maynor with 18.

They followed that win last Monday with another crushing defeat over Terry Sanford beating them 50-15.

Bronson had 18 points in that game and Neicy Singletary popped the basket six times for 12.

In the girls' only remotely close game, they beat West Lee 49-40 last Thursday night.

Kesha Bronson scored 19 points in that game with Singletary coming up with another 12.

Bronson and Singletary scored 24 and 16 respectively in their game last Monday night against E.E. Smith.

Smith fell hard losing 64-34 to the Ninth Grade Girls team.

Players on the Ninth Grade Boys Basketball team have nothing to be ashamed of as their record now stands at 3-1.

They have recorded wins over Reid Ross, 52-51; Terry Sanford, 65-48 and West Lee, 54-50.

Their only loss was to Anson by two points, 54-56.

Couldn't stop it

Although he tried, this Cape Fear defender could not stop the shot number 34 for the Bucks. It was up and in for two. In that game, the Bucks took Cape Fear 64-57. The Buck's Tony McRae walked away from the game with 23 points, more than anyone else scored that night.

Free throws hurt Bucks

Greg Killingsworth is a little concerned about the way his Hoke High Buck Varsity Basketball team is not hitting from the free throw line.

Faulty free throw shooting is what lost the first game against South View in overtime, 52-50.

Last Friday night the Bucks were in action again against South View and this time, the outcome was different.

The Bucks, led by Elgin Blue, walked on them 71-57, according to Killingsworth.

Although the team was short four men, the Bucks played a fine game.

"Elgin Blue has been the difference for us," said the coach.

Blue has been leading the offense up and down the court in a new style of full court play that is wearing out opponents.

"We shot well from the outside," Killingsworth said adding that the team hit 59% from the floor.

"We took it in to our big boys," he said.

The team had four players in double figures.

In action last week, the Bucks beat Cape Fear 64-57.

Tony McRae walked away from that game with 23 points while Marvin Maynor hit for 17.
