Capps helping Spartans

A Raeford woman, Jill Capps, is helping the University of North Carolina at Greensboro's Lady Spartan Basketball team on their way to a possible tournament spot. Statistics released recently show Capps shooting 100% from the free throw line.

Her team now has a record of 6-2. Capps has played in all eight games.

Capps is also shooting 52% from the floor and is averaging 4.1 rebounds per game.

Putting it up
After hours basketball is always more fun than playing when the physical education teacher says to. Here, these guys are engrossed in a game that may have gone on all afternoon. Being in the middle of a vacation from school, they could have played all night.

Lady Eagles capture two wins

The Lady Eagles defeated the Rockingham Rockets 42-18, December 10 at Rockingham.

The Eagles outscored the Rockets 14-3 in the first quarter and 17-7 in the second to take a 31-10 lead at halftime.

The first half was sparked by tough defense and good inside shots.

The second half was marred by bad passes and poor shooting.

The Eagles held the Rockets 4-3 in the third quarter and 7-5 in the fourth for the 42-18 victory.

Kim Craigmiles lead the Eagles with 13 points followed by Kristen Kelton with 12.

Bonita Doby scored 9 points followed by Jennifer Blue with four, Wanda Locklear and Marsha Pickett each scored two points. C. Harris lead the rockets with eight.

Thursday, December 13, the Lady Eagles traveled to Sanford taking a 46-12 win over East Lee.

The Eagles slow 7-3 first quarter start improved somewhat in the second quarter outscoring East Lee 12-1 for a 19-4 lead at halftime.

The Eagles were sparked in the third quarter by Jennifer Blue's Drive of 13 points.

To take a 17-2 edge.

A lot of different players took part in the fourth quarter and the Eagles maintained a 12-6 edge for its 46-12 victory.

The Eagles were led by Jennifer Blue with 16 points followed by Kristen Kelton with 8 points. Bonita Doby and Marsha Pickett each had 7 followed by Kim Craigmiles with four.

Tammy Stephens and Kathy Artis each scored two points for the team's 46 points. Stone lead East Lee with five points.

In other action the Lady Eagles defeated Ellerbe Monday, December 17, 46-15 to take a 5-0 record into the Christmas break.

The Eagles started out pressing taking a 16-0 lead in the first quarter. Bonita Doby and Kim Craigmiles lead the charge with steals and assists.

The lead had expanded to 30-5 by halftime with frequent substitutions.

The Lady Eagles didn't ease up and outscored Ellerbe 16-10 in the second half.

Kim Craigmiles lead the Eagles with 16 points followed by Bonita Doby's 14. Marsha Pickett scored six points and Kristen Kelton four.
