McColl heading for Campbell U.

Kimberly Melissa McColl of Raeford has been accepted to Campbell University. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Thomas McColl. Kimberly attended Hoke County High School. Campbell University is located south of Raleigh, the capital of North Carolina, in the quaint community of Buies Creek. In addition to a full liberal arts program, the university has a School of Law and offers graduate degrees in business, education, and government.

Campbell offers programs of study at Fort Bragg, Rocky Mount, and Raleigh also. In cooperation with Ulster College in Belfast, Ireland, Campbell sponsors a program in the applied sciences at Tanku Abdul Rahman College in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia.

Calendar Winners

J.W. Turlington PTA Treasurer Patricia Jacobs (right) presents prizes to calendar sales winners. Devon Day is accepting $25 for each homeroom. First place class winner was Mrs. Strickland, second place class winner was Mrs. Taylor and third place class winner was Mrs. Sutton. Darryl Monroe is second place individual winner $50; Jennifer Lindsay is the third place individual winner $25. Travis McLaughlin (not shown) won a portable TV radio. Other prizes were walkman AM-FM radios, stuffed animals, digital watches and baseballs. Mrs. Brenda Floyd, PTA Project chairperson, also presented Lisa Harris with a certificate for a one-week Florida vacation for her family. Harris was the first place calendar winner.

Family wins vacation

Christmas came early to students at J.W. Turlington School. Prizes were awarded to winners of the calendar sales project sponsored by the school's PTA. Lizzie Mae Harris and her daughter Lisa were presented with a certificate for a one-week Florida Vacation and $100 to spend during that vacation. The certificate is good until December 31, 1985. Harris sold 133 calendars for the Turlington PTA. Her daughter Lisa is a fifth grade student at Turlington. Proceeds will be used for instructional supplies and improvement of the school facilities. Turlington PTA meets every second Monday each month at 7 p.m. in the school auditorium. All parents, and friends are urged to support the PTA. The next meeting will be January 14.

Hollingsworth finishes course

Spec. 4 Bridges D. Hollingsworth, grandson of Ozella B. Pigatt of Rural Route 1, Raeford, and son of Ruth Easterling of 32 Pine St., Nyack, New York., has completed a U.S. Army primary leadership course at Fort Bragg. Students received training in supervisory skills, leadership principles and small unit training techniques essential to a first-line supervisor in a technical or administrative environment. Hollingsworth is a medical specialist with the 1st Corps Support Command.

... Year finally ends

A Hoke County man was sentenced to four years in prison after he pleaded guilty to incest charges.

The Chamber of Commerce announced a plan to hire a secretary and to move its offices to a renovated Aberdeen and Rockfish Railroad Depot on Main Street in Raeford.

December

The Raeford branch of United Carolina Bank was robbed. Three county men were arrested leaving the bank, and one was charged by the Federal Bureau of Investigation. Grady Dominic Cunningham, 20, was awaiting trial at year's end on the charges. Commissioner James Albert Hunt said he would appeal a two-year jail term given to him for a probation violation. Hunt also did not seek re-election as the commission vice chairman because of his "personal" problems.

While 40 residents from the Indian community waited in the hall, members of the new Hoke County Board of Education stayed in executive session for 50 minutes.

Share Your Christmas was deemed a success after the Raeford Woman's Club program brightened the season for about 1,000 needy residents.

The A&R Railroad officially gave the depot to the city and county governments to be used by the Chamber of Commerce and the new industrial recruiter for an office.

A Chamber sponsored mullet roast drew about 125 resident and dignitaries. Those attending were told that "good" things were going to happen in Hoke County.

The county commissioners launched efforts to get countywide zoning started.

Britthaven Inc. received the OK from the Cardinal Health Agency to construct a $1.6 million nursing home in Hoke County. Construction is supposed to begin this spring.

The state DOT voted in December to return US 401 to the construction priority list.

The year 1984 came to an end.

Winner

Eric Strickland, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Tim Strickland, pulls the winning ticket during a December 15 drawing at the Community United Methodist Church. Josh Moody of Wagram had the lucky number and won a market hog slaughtered and cut to his specifications. The hog was raised on the Hoffmann-Lewis Farms near Five Points. Proceeds from the raffle helped the church purchase kitchen equipment.
