Jazz band to perform at Sandhills

The Sandhills Community College Jazz Band and Choir will perform at the Southern Pines Performing Arts Center on Thursday, February 7 at 8 p.m. The Jazz Band will open the performance with eight "big band" selections.

Included on the program are such standards as Gershwin's "Rhapsody in Blue," Duke Ell-ington's "Moon Indigo," The Glenn Miller Orchestra's version of "A String of Pearls," Sammy Nestico's arrangements of "On the Sunny Side of the Street," and

"Show Me the Way to Go Home." John Barry's "Bone Case Full O' Blues" (featuring the trombones) "The Curly Shuffle" ("a and vaudeville-style number that's as much fun as a three Stooges movie") round out the first part of the program.

Next, the Jazz Band will be joined by vocalist Alison Lawrence-Smith to perform "Quiet Nights of Quiet Stars," "The Nearness of You," "Moonlight in Vermont," and "Tuxedo Junction."

Under the direction of SCC vocal instructor Frances Wilson and accompanied by Barbara Williams, the Choir will then perform choral selections from the musical "Oliver." The singers will also present an arrangement of "Boogie Woogie Bugle Boy."
