Allen named to FSU honor

Genise Merchel Allen, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby G. Allen of Raeford, has made the Dean's List at Fayetteville State University with a grade point average (G.P.A.) of 3.6 for the Fall Semester 1984-85.

In order for students to make the Dean's List at Fayetteville State University they must earn a minimum cumulative G.P.A. of 3.2 or better with the successful completion of at least 12 credits.

LREMC offers youth tour

High school juniors and sophomores whose parents are members of Lumbee River Electric Membership Corporation are invited to apply for trips this summer to Washington, D.C., and White Lake.

The trips are offered as part of the co-op's Youth Opportunities Program. Two juniors will be selected for the Rural Electric Youth Tour to Washington and two sophomores will be selected to attend the N.C. Cooperative Council Youth Camp at Camp R.J. Peeler at White Lake.

Applicants, who must attend any high school in Robeson, Scotland, Hoke or Cumberland counties, must submit by March 15 a 200- to 300- word essay on the topic: "What are the differences between cooperatives and other types of businesses?"

Selection of the winning essays will be made by an independent committee selected by LREMC.

The Rural Electric Youth Tour to Washington is scheduled for June 8-14. The N.C. Cooperative Council Youth Camp at White Lake is scheduled for June 10-14.

For application forms, write Jerry Spivey, Lumbee River EMC, P.O. Box 830, Red Springs, N.C. 28377, or call: Red Springs 843-4131; Fayetteville, 485-6179; Raeford 875-4249; Lumberton 276-2735; Lumberton 738-1151.

Reprocessed wool means wool fibers were once woven, knitted or felted into wool fabric, but the original fabric was never used. Instead, it was reduced back to fibers which were then reprocessed into a new fabric.

All-State band members

On February 2, these Upchurch Junior High School band students were selected by auditions from over 500 prospective musicians to make the Southeastern District Junior High All-State Band. This is the first year Hoke County students have ever participated in the junior high auditions. Cape Fear High School was the site of auditions consisting of scales, sight reading and performance of a prepared solo. Qualifying for the two 75-piece bands are (L to R): Tanya Baker - clarinet, and alternates Dawn Brock - clarinet, Priscilla Carson - mallet percussion, and Sophia Locklear - alto saxophone. The clinic will be held May 3-5 at Monroe High School. Gil Clark is Director of Bands at Upchurch Junior High School.

Community involvement on agenda for FHA club

Parent participation, personal enlightenment, and community involvement has been the theme for the Hoke County High School Future Homemakers of America in recent months.

Joyce Conlon, from the Life Center in Fayetteville was guest speaker on "Drug and Alcohol Abuse."

Parents were invited to attend along with club members from HOSA, with their club advisor, Mrs. Sally Young.

Conlon gave a very informative talk. After the film presentation, time was allowed for questions from the audience.

John Ward nominated for ECU scholarship

A Raeford resident along with 53 outstanding high school seniors from across the state and nation have been nominated as semifinalists for the selection of the first five University Scholars awards at East Carolina University.

Hoke High Senior John D. Ward of Raeford has been nominated.

The University Scholars is a mayor new, privately-financed scholarship program designed to attract academically-gifted students with demonstrated leadership potential to ECU.

Eventually the program will support at least 20 $3,000 University Scholars award each year.

The first five recipients will be chosen this spring and enter the university in the fall semester.
