

Place for the tape

Chamber donates video unit

By Elizabeth Burgess
The Hoke County Public Library received a wonderful Valentine's Day present from the Raeford-Hoke Chamber of Commerce.

Steve Parker presented an idea to the Chamber of Commerce, and it was approved.

Steve delivered to the library a new VHS video recorder.

The library staff is thrilled to receive the recorder, and we thank the members of the Raeford-Hoke Chamber of Commerce for being so generous to the library.

I know that the VHS recorder will be enjoyed by library users for many years to come.

The library has been privileged to have on display items from the Hoke County School High School Vocational Department. We thank Harold Gillis, Wanda McPhaul, Arthur Kemp, Sally Young, Charlie Parsons, Martha Fraize, and all the vocational teachers and students for allowing the library to display the items.

The Quiz Bowl Team practiced again Sunday afternoon.

Members of the team are Tripp Simpson, Bruce Roberts, Darryl Snapp, William Carter, Jay Pate, Josh Pate, Susan Osborne, John Ward, Mary Emily McDonald and Mary Parrish Coley.

All of the members of the team are students at Hoke County High School.
