JAYCEES - Raeford Jaycees meet the 2nd and 4th Monday of each month over Howell's Drug Company on Main Street. Anyone interested is invited to attend.

BOAT LICENSES - The Motor Vehicle License Agency in Raeford is now authorized by the North Carolina Wildlife Resources Commission to register boats. This will be good news for local boat owners as it will prevent them having to drive to Fayetteville or other surrounding towns to register their boats. Mrs. Frances W. Green Jones, operator of the agency, believes that this will be a much appreciated service for boat owners of the community.

FTO - The Parent Teacher Organization of South Hoke School will hold a meeting on Feb. 28 at the school at 7 p.m. The public is invited.

CIVIC LEAGUE - The Hoke County Civic League will hold its monthly meeting on Monday, March 4 at the Shady Grove Missionary Baptist Church, 401 South at 7:30 p.m. Guest speaker will be Mrs. Vernetta Bridges, Director of the Federal Program "Friends of Hoke" for the Hoke County School System. The public is invited to attend this informal meeting in support of the Hoke County Schools.

BLACK CAUCUS - The Hoke County Black Leadership Caucus will meet Saturday, March 9 at 9 a.m. at Shady Grove Raeford Baptist Church. The public is invited.

March 4, 11 - Alcoholics and drug addicts need help to help themselves. As a public service, The Life Center of Fayetteville will present a new series of workshops for family members and others whose lives are affected by the alcoholic/drug addicts, to educate them about the disease of alcoholism/drugism, and to train them in an intervention method designed to lovingly confront the alcoholic/addict with his/her disease, and to cause him/her to seek help. This new series of workshops will be held at The Life Center of Fayetteville, 3425 Melrose Road, Fayetteville, NC 28304, on March 4 and 11, from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. each night. To register, or for further information, contact The Life Center, 485-7188.

March 10 - The Fayetteville State University Planetarium will present the sky show "Cosmic Dimensions." This planetarium program brings into focus the size of the Universe by discussing the relative distance from Earth to the Moon and other planets, then the star, galaxies, and the intense, rapidly receding quasar. "Cosmic Dimensions" will be presented on Sundays at 3 p.m. through March 18. Admission is $2 for adults and $1 for children and students with proper identification.

For more information call 486-1681 or 486-1630 between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m., Monday through Friday.

March 12 thru May 24 - MANSION TOURS - It's spring again and time for spring tours at North Carolina's Executive Mansion on Blount Street. Tours begin on Tuesday, March 12, and continue through Friday, May 24. Tours may be arranged on Tuesday, Thursday and Friday at 10, 10:30 and 11 a.m. and 1:30, 2 and 2:30 p.m. Tours are by reservation only. Spring reservations are filled for large groups. However, there is still ample room for individuals and groups of 15 or less. For details and reservations, write or call Elizabeth Wall at Capital Area Visitor Center, 109 E. Jones St., Raleigh, 27611; telephone 919/733-3456.

During March - BINGO - Raeford Junior Woman's Club will again sponsor bingo games each Saturday night in March at the civic center. Games will begin at 7:30 p.m. and will include a $50 jackpot, split pots and regular games. Come on out and enjoy the fellowship and fun. All proceeds will be returned to Hoke County in charitable form.

March 1 - BEEF COOK OFF - If you have a beef dish that you're particularly proud of, now is the time to enter it in the National Beef Cook-Off. You could win an expense-paid trip to Wichita, Kansas Sept. 24-26 where you'll represent North Carolina and compete for a top prize of $5,000. To enter, send a typed copy of your recipe (including name, address, phone number and a brief statement about the origin of your recipe) to: National Beef Cook-Off, 444 N. Michigan Ave., Chicago, Ill. 60611. Entries must be postmarked no later than March 1. Recipes are judged in state-by-state competition. State winners then travel to Wichita to compete in the National Beef Cook-Off. Prizes at the national level are: first place, $5,000; second place, $2,500; third place, $1,000; five honorable mentions, $300 each. Any beef recipe using chuck, round, fresh brisket, plate, shank and ground beef is eligible. All recipes must contain a minimum of one pound of beef and not more than five, and each serving must contain at least three ounces of cooked beef. Meat used must be exclusively beef. Cooking time cannot exceed four hours. The recipe must be specific, with no use of brand names, and must state the number of servings and approximate preparation time. All entries become the property of the American National CowBelles, Inc.

March 5 - SEWING WORKSHOP - The Hoke County 4-H Program will sponsor a Beginners Sewing Workshop for interested youth between the ages of 9-19. Participants will make either a wrap-around skirt or skirt with elasticized waist. Cost will be $1, which will include bobbin and sewing machine needles. Participants must furnish fabric, pattern and notions. The workshop will begin Tuesday, March 5, from 4-6 p.m. There are only a few more spaces left. To register, call the Extension Office at 875-2162.

March 7 - SOLDIER SHOW SET - "All You Can Be - And More!" - the 1985 Army Soldier Show - which started a national tour with four performances in Washington, D.C. in mid-January, will come to the Fayetteville/Fort Bragg area for a free performance on March 7 at the Cumberland County Memorial Auditorium, beginning at 7:30 p.m. For more information, call 396-3502 or 396-6893.

March 14-16 - INDIAN CONFERENCE - Indians from across the state will gather at the Bordeaux Motor Inn in Fayetteville March 14-16, 1985, for the Tenth Annual North Carolina Indian Unity Conference. The conference sponsor, United Tribes of North Carolina (UTNC), is currently finalizing plans for the annual conference which will have as its theme, "Memories of Our Past, Visions of Our Future." The conference pre-registration fee will be $20 per person. The registration fee at the conference will be $35. Separate tickets for the banquet only will be available for $15. Persons wishing more information about the conference should contact one of the member organizations of UTNC, which includes seven North Carolina Indian community organizations and the N.C. Commission of Indian Affairs.

March 5, 6 - SEWING WORKSHOP - If you like to sew, and are interested in learning new techniques, then plan to attend a two day workshop March 5 and 6 in Southern Pines. The workshop is sponsored by the Agricultural Extension Service and will be held from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. at Brownson Memorial Presbyterian Church. Two day workshops include: Ultra Suede Skirt, Modified Tailoring, English Smocking, Sewing Silk and Silk Like Fabrics. (You can attend one). Mini workshops include Tuesday 9:30-12:00 - Accessories (Belts and Ties); 1:00-3:30 - Applique Techniques; Wednesday 9:30-12:00 - Short Cut Sewing Techniques; 1:00-3:30 p.m. - Accessories (Pocketbooks). Registration fee is $5.00 and the deadline for registration is February 15. If interested please call Alice Pettitt at the Hoke County Extension Office at 875-2162.

March 22-24 - HOT ROD - The International Hot Rod Association and Darlington International Dragway have finalized plans for a second National event at Darlington. The track's annual ZOOM Winter Nationals, scheduled this year for March 22-24, will now be joined by the Stroh's Nationals on October 4-6. The additional race will afford Carolina area fans the opportunity to witness both the season-opener and the finale of the Winston I-H-R-A season.

April 2 - JERRY FALWELL - A "Jerry Falwell Friendship Meeting" will be held at the Sheraton Hotel, 301 Bragg Boulevard in Fayetteville on Tuesday, April 2 at 7 p.m. Complimentary dessert will be served.

March 1-3 - WOMAN'S ACC TOURNEY - Fayetteville is honored to be the host city again this year for the ACC Women's Basketball Tournament to be held March 1-3 at the Cumberland County Arena. The Oldie Fayetteville Association has arranged for the four semi-finalist teams to be in downtown Fayetteville, Saturday, March 2nd at 9 a.m. on The Oldie Fayetteville Commons. The coaches and players of these four teams will be available to sign autographs and talk with their fans for an hour. In case of rain, we will move to the fellowship hall of Hay Street United Methodist Church. For further information contact: Robin Legg, Oldie Fayetteville Association, 483-2073.

March 3 - LADIES IN WHITE - The Missionaries of Shady Grove Baptist Church, 401 South will sponsor a "Ladies in White" program on Sunday, March 3, at 6:30 p.m. Guest speaker will be Rev. Ruth W. Mallette, Associate pastor of the First Baptist Church and Chaplain of Petersburg General Hospital, both of Petersburg, Virginia. The ladies of the church invite all Missionaries to join them in this program.

March 3 - CAROLINA 500 - North Carolina Motor Speedway's business offices in Rockingham will be open seven days a week through the Carolina 500 Winston Cup Grand National race Sunday, March 3. Ticket offices will be open from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m. Monday through Saturday, and from 1 p.m. until 5 p.m. Sunday. Telephone 919/582-2861.

March 14-16 - INDIAN ART CONTEST - An art contest to recognize the talent of American Indian artists in North Carolina will be one of the many features of the Tenth Annual North Carolina Indian Unity Conference to be held March 14-16, at the Bordeaux Motor Inn in Fayetteville. The North Carolina Commission of Indian Affairs, a member organization of UTNC, will coordinate the contest. For more information on contest rules and regulations, contact Teresa Emmanuel at the commission, P.O. Box 27228, Raleigh, N.C. 27611 or call 919-733-5998.

March 4 - MICROWAVE WORKSHOP - Due to the tremendous interest in microwave ovens, the Agricultural Extension Service will sponsor another microwave workshop on Monday, March 4 at 7 p.m. The class is open to all people who are interested. Basic information and recipes will be given and demonstrated. To register call 875-2162 between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. Monday through Friday.

DAIRY CONTEST - The Grand Prize for the second North Carolina Dairy Recipe Contest will be round trip tickets for two to Orlando, Florida and four days and three nights at the Hyatt Regency Resort in Orlando, according to Alice Pettitt. The contest will be sponsored by the American Dairy Association of North Carolina, North Carolina Agricultural Extension Service, Piedmont Airlines and Hyatt-Winston-Salem. The contest is open to any resident of North Carolina who is 19 years of age or older with the exception of the employees and immediate family members of the North Carolina Extension Service, the American Dairy Association, Hyatt and Piedmont Airlines. Contact your local North Carolina Agricultural Extension Service Office for date of the County Contest and official entry form with the contest rules. Enter your favorite dairy recipe today.

Friday Feb. 29

SPECIAL ARTS FESTIVAL - Very Special Arts Festival for Handicap children of Hoke County will be held on Thursday Feb. 28 at Upchurch School with performances in the auditorium at Noon by the exceptional children of Hoke County. The students' arts exhibit will be in the gym from 1-2 p.m. The public is invited to attend.

Friday March 1

PUMP BOYS - The Fayetteville Little Theatre is proud to present a revival of their award-winning production of "Pump Boys and Dinettes". Winner of the Best Play Award at the North Carolina Theatre Conference in High Point last November, the cast is now brushing up to take the play to the South Eastern Theatre Conference to be held March 7-10 in Tampa, Florida. As an effort to raise expense money, the cast has agreed to do two special performances on FLT's Stage II on March 1 at 8:00 p.m. and 10:00 p.m. All proceeds from these performances will help to pay bus and motel expenses for the cast and crew of sixteen going from the Little Theatre to represent the state of North Carolina. For reservations, please call the Little Theatre Box Office between 4 and 9 p.m. at 323-4233.

SCOUT BANQUET - Former "Today Show" host Frank Blair will be the Keynote Speaker at the Cape Fear Council's Annual Eagle Scout Recognition Banquet. The Banquet will be held on March 1 at the Wilmington Hilton. Blair is an Eagle Scout and has been awarded the Distinguished Eagle Scout Award. Tickets to the banquet may be purchased by mailing $14.75 per ticket to the Boy Scouts of America, P.O. Box 1626, Wilmington, N.C. 28402.

Monday March 4

BASKETBALL - A fundraising basketball game will be played Monday night, March 4 at 7 p.m. at the Upchurch Jr. High Gym. The Raeford All-Stars will play D 103 FM radio station of Fayetteville. Admission to the event will be $1.

FMA GARDENS - Flora MacDonald Gardens, Inc., announces a benefit performance of Bill Lovin's underwater film show, on Thursday, March 14 at 8 p.m. in the auditorium of Flora MacDonald Academy, Red Springs. Admission will be by donation of $3 for students and $5 for the public. A reception will immediately follow the show in conservatory hall of Flora MacDonald Academy. The proceeds will be used to help restore the Flora MacDonald Gardens, a national historic site which was devastated by the March 28, 1984, tornado. Tickets or information are available from directors of Flora MacDonald Gardens or by calling 919-843-4139 and tickets will be available at the door.

Circus is coming
Throughout Hoke County's history, the circus has brought excitement and thrills to on-lookers. This year's circus promises to be no exception. Here, local residents watch as a circus wagon passes the courthouse in a 1916 parade. This photograph is part of a collection recently given to the Hoke County Library history room by Mr. and Mrs. Ken McNeill.

Circus to be here for April 16 shows

The Circus is coming back to town, Raeford Kiwanis Club president Wendell Young recently announced.
This will be a return performance for The Franzen Brothers Circus Troupe, who appeared here in April, 1983 under the sponsorship of the Kiwanis Club.
The date for the circus is Tuesday, April 16, said Young.
Shows are scheduled for 5:30 p.m. and 8 p.m.
Ticket prices in advance will be $3 for children age 13 and under, and $4 for adults.
Children under 2 will be admitted free of charge.
Senior citizens, who are 65 and over, will pay $3.
"It is very important to get a ticket in advance, because we expect to have a sell-out as both shows and each ticket is a dollar more at the gate," Young said.

In 1983 the circus entertained almost 2,500 area residents.
The Franzen Brothers circus is wholesome family entertainment under a new large circus tent with all the usual circus animals, high-wire acts and those wonderful clowns.
"This will be another spectacular event in the community," Young said.
Tickets will go on sale by Kiwanis Club members and at loan outlets soon. All proceeds will go to benefit the Hoke County Children's Center and other local charities.
The show will be on the grounds of the old National Guard Armory in Raeford.

4-H Horse Club goes to Kinston

by Karyl Fahrenbruck
On Saturday, February 9, 11 members of the Hoke County 4-H Horse Club went to Kinston for the Regional Horse Bowl.
The members made a junior team and mixed team.
The junior team included Becky Peck, team captain, Karyl Fahrenbruck, Michelle Oldham, Tammy Harris, and alternate Shannon Shaefer.
The mixed team included Roy Harris, team captain, Catharin Quick, Craig Koonce, Harold Parente, and alternate Christy Robinette.
Ronnie Cash, Tammy Ellis, Horse Club adviser, and Sandra Ross, extension agent, also went.
Everyone had a good time and plans are being made to participate again next year.
On February 12, at our regular schedule meeting we went over our project manuals and talked about the Horse Bowl.
The next meeting is scheduled for Tuesday, March 12, at 7 p.m. at the Agriculture Extension Office. Anyone interested is invited to attend; dues are 25 cents.
For further information call the 4-H Office, 875-2162, or Tammy Ellis, 875-2428.

Death rates from rheumatic heart disease have declined nearly 76 percent since 1950, according to an American Heart Association estimate. In 1950, more than 22,000 Americans died of rheumatic heart disease. Today, rheumatic fever and rheumatic heart disease kill about 6,700 people each year, according to American Heart Association statistics.
