

Thirteen convicted of liquor law violations

Thirteen area residents were convicted in Hoke County District Court last week of Alcohol Beverage Control (ABC) infractions.

A Shannon resident, Ramy Chavis, who was cited on February 9 for possession of liquor under age 21, was sentenced to 30 days suspended for three years unsupervised probation, court records say.

Chavis, 19, was also fined $50 and ordered by the court not to have any alcohol or go near Brady's, a local night club, during his probation.

James Marshall McIntyre, of Raeford, was fined $150 and given three years unsupervised probation after being convicted of possessing liquor for sale without a permit, records say.

McIntyre was cited on November 10, 1984.

The 60-year-old man was also ordered not to break any ABC laws in the future, according to records.

Franklin Gray, 23, a St. Pauls resident, was given a 30 day suspended sentence and fined $10 after being cited on January 19 for having a mixed drink in a club where the management possesses no alcohol license, records say.

Dannier Ray Smith, of Hope Mills, was cited on January 19 having a mixed drink at age 19 and in a place where no alcohol permit exists.

Smith was sentenced to 60 days in jail suspended for a $50 fine, records say.

Ricky Adams, of Pembroke, was sentenced to 30 days in jail suspended for a $10 fine after being convicted of possession of liquor where there is no permit.

Adams, 22, was cited on March 2, records say.

A Raeford resident, Alice Colleen Adkins, was convicted of drinking beer under age and given a 30 day sentenced suspended for a $50 fine, records say.

Alfred Louis Baldwin, 34, of Raeford, was sentenced to no less than nine and no more than 12 months in prison suspended for a $100 fine after being found guilty of possession of alcohol for sale on December 9, records say.

Clarence H. Ching, of Maxton, was convicted of possession of beer under age.

Ching, 18, was cited on February 17 for drinking beer under age, records say, adding that he was sentenced to 30 days suspended for a $50 fine.

Danny Earl Daves, of St. Pauls was cited on February 19 possessing liquor while under age.

After being convicted, the 19-year-old was sentenced to 60 days in jail suspended for two years on unsupervised probation and a $75 fine, records say.

Hellen Grady, of St. Pauls, was fined $10 after being convicted of having a mixed drink where there is no permit, records say.

Eric Jerome Hobson, 22, a Raeford resident, was given three years unsupervised probation and fined $100 for possessing alcohol for sale, records say.

Another Raeford resident, Willie Marvin McCall, was convicted of possession of alcohol for sale and sentenced to one year suspended for three years unsupervised probation and fined $150, records say.

McCall, 28, was cited on December 9, records say.

Joe Alton McGeachy, of Raeford, was convicted of two counts of possessing alcohol for sale without a permit, according to records.

McGeachy, 33, was cited on February 2 and 9.

He was sentenced to one year suspended for five years unsupervised probation and fined $250, records say.

In other court action, an Aberdeen man was sentenced to 60 days in the Hoke County Jail after not paying the fines in a previous driving while impaired (DWI) case, records say.

The 54-year-old Otis Verbal was arrested and charged on September 9 of last year, records say.

He was originally sentenced to 60 days suspended and fined $250, records say.

A 21-year-old Raeford resident, Evans Jackson, was sentenced to 30 days in jail after being convicted of assaulting a woman, records say.

According to a warrant issued on March 2, Jackson beat Lisa Jackson's head against a wall.

Felton Jacobs, a Raeford resident, was sentenced to two years suspended for two years special supervised probation after being convicted of cutting Gregory Monroe on the neck, records say.

Jacobs will also spend 14 days in the Hoke County Jail for inflicting the wound that took 19 stitches to close, records say.

The 22-year-old man was convicted of assault with a deadly weapon.

Daren Ray Hardin, a Raeford

resident, was sentenced to two years supervised probation that will change to unsupervised probation once he has paid $500 restitution to Carlos E. Miller.

Hardin, 18, was convicted of damaging Miller's 1978 Pontiac, records say.

Myrtle F. Hammonds has until March 29 to pay off a $25 worth-check to Maxway or she will go to jail for 30 days, records say.

Hammonds, a Raeford resident, must also pay $20 for a worthless check to Pope's, records say.

Ronald D. Sheffield, a Raeford resident, was convicted of having no car registration, no insurance and displaying a fictitious license plate, records say.

The 26-year-old man was sentenced to 90 days suspended for three years unsupervised probation and fined $150, according to records.

Henry Purcell, a Raeford resident, was convicted of writing a worthless check to the Jiffy Stop 2, records say.

Purcell must pay $15 restitution by March 15 or go to jail for 30 days, records say.

Billy Marcus McVicker, 51, of Raeford, was sentenced to one year suspended for three years supervised probation after being convicted of taking three cartons of cigarettes and a package of steak from Raeford's Food Lion, records say.

The man was also ordered to serve 48 hours of community service.

Twilla Bullard, a Raeford resident, was sentenced to 90 days in jail suspended for three years unsupervised probation after being convicted of shoplifting.

Bullard, 16, apparently took two pairs of sweat pants, a pocket-book, six pairs of socks, one pair of anklets, a pair of boots, a bra and five pairs of underwear from the local Sky City Store, records say.

She also took some boots from the local Maxway and some make-up from Revco, records say.

The girl must also serve 40 hours of community service.

Evander Locklear, a Parkton resident, was given six months suspended for five years unsupervised probation and fined $50 for carrying a concealed weapon, records say, adding that he was arrested on August 14 of last year.

Timothy Purcell, a Raeford resident and student at Hoke High, was placed on probation for three years for carrying a shotgun to school with him.

The 19-year-old boy was arrested on November 26 and must serve 60 hours of community service, records say.

Patrick Fellows, of Raeford, was given four years supervised probation and fined $350 after being convicted of resisting and obstructing an officer of the law, bouncing three checks and possession of stolen property, records say.

The three bad checks were written to Tucker's Grocery and Fellows was found in possession of a watch belonging to David Smith, records say.

Lisa Jones, of Raeford, was sentenced to 90 days suspended for three years unsupervised probation for shoplifting, records say.

According to warrants, she took $51.99 in merchandise from Maxway.

Jones, 17, must serve 40 hours community service, records say.

Four area residents were fined for possession of marijuana in court last week.

Diane Chavis, of Lumberton, Cliff Douglas Hardin, of Lumberton, Gerome McKoy, of Red Springs and Perry Leon Peterkin, of Raeford were all fined $50, records say.

Sharon Renee Ross, of Raeford, was sentenced to one year suspended for two years supervised probation and fined $200 after being convicted of larceny and trespassing, records say.

The 21-year-old woman was originally charged with second degree burglary, but that charge was reduced to trespassing, according to records.

The larceny charge came from the apparent theft of a box of diapers from Raeford's Food Lion, records say.

In previous court action, Peter McNair Gibson, a Red Springs resident, was sentenced to six months in prison suspended for two years supervised probation and ordered to pay $598 in restitution to victims of his forgeries, records say.

Gibson, through a plea bargain, plead guilty to one count of forgery and uttering and one count of uttering, or passing forged paper, records say.

Both of the counts on file were against a Billy H. Barefoot, records say.
