Stoneybrook on Saturday

The $15,000 Coca-Cola Sandhills Cup, the fourth race, features the 38th renewal of the Stoneybrook Steeplechase Races at Southern Pines, on Saturday, April 13. The post time for the first race is 2 p.m.

Arcadia Stable's Real Pip came from behind to win the 1984 edition of the Sandhills Cup which over the years has produced some of the finest competitors on the steeplechase circuit.

William S. Farish's Thrice Worthy captured the Cup in 1982 and Arthur O. Choate Jr.'s Turtle Head emerged victorious in 1983.

One of the pre-race favorites is Eremita, owned by Robert and Mary Entenmann of Big E Farm in Powerhead, N.Y., the winner of the 1985 edition of the Carolina Cup held on March 30 at Camden, South Carolina.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael G. Walsh Sr., are hosts once again as they have been for 37 years, at their colorful farm off Youngs Road.

The Stoneybrook race course has been rated among the finest steeplechase facilities in America.

"The training track and hurdle course at Stoneybrook Farm are comparable to the finest on any private estate in the country," commented Ned Welch in "Who's Who in Thoroughbred Racing."

There are some 13 fences on the hurdle course, each measuring approximately 4 feet, 2 inches in height.

The opening race about two miles over fences for 3-year-old maidens upward is the Billie Calais Memorial and the 7-furlong on the turf will be run for maidens three years old and upward in the second race.

The Stoneybrook, an optional claiming event, is carded for about two miles over fences in the third year race and the fifth race of the day is the Tanglewood, also on the flat, is for three-year-olds. Judging for the annual Hat Contest will take place at the Judge's Stand after the first race.
