Mrs. Bruce Darrell Ellis

Ellis - Williams wed

On April 13 Miss Samantha Ja'Nae Williams was married to Bruce Darrell Ellis. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Williams of Rockingham. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Ellis of Raeford.

The wedding took place in the Beverly Hills Baptist Church of Rockingham. The Rev. Stan Welch officiated.

The church decorations featured a fifteen branch candelabra and a kneeling bench entwined with fern. The family pews were marked with ivory lace bows holding ivy, babies' breath and a touch of blue.

Mary Welch, soloist, of Kannapolis sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "My Tribute." Mrs. Rodney Collins, soloist, sang "God, A Woman and A Man." Mrs. Collins and Barry Ellis, the groom's brother of Austin, Texas, sang "Just You and I." Mrs. Larry Moser of Aberdeen was pianist.

The bride, escorted by her father, wore a long ivory gown of chiffon over taffeta. Styled with a high neckline and chantilly lace collar, the dress had a fitted bodice, long sheer sleeves, and a full skirt with soft pleats and a tie sash. She wore an ivory picture hat which was covered with ribbon lace and seed pearls and had a rosette and satin streamers on one side. She carried a cascade bouquet of miniature ivory carnations, stephanotis, ivory and blue roses, babies' breath, and a royal cattleya orchid.

The bride's maid of honor was Lisa Lafaye Bittle of Aberdeen. She wore an intermezzo-length dress of blue matte taffeta with a wrap front. The bodice had puffed sleeves and matching embroidery. She carried a single, long-stemmed ivory rose with ivory streamers and touches of blue. She wore babies' breath in her hair.

Ron Ellis, cousin of the groom, was his best man. Ushers were Tony Bartley Williams of Southern Pines and James Robert Williams Jr. of Charlotte, brothers of the bride.

The mothers of the bride and groom wore corsages of ivory roses. The grandmothers also wore flowers.

After the ceremony, the bride's parents entertained with a reception in the fellowship hall of the church.

The room was decorated with greenery and candelabra. The table, covered with white linen and overlaid with lace, had an arrangement of pink roses, blue and ivory flowers.

The wedding cake was accented with ribbon ruffle scallops on the sides and shell trim at the base. Tiny drop flowers were on the sides and miniature flowers on the top. After the bride and groom cut the first slice, they greeted the guests.

The couple plans to live on Route 1, Aberdeen after a trip to the N.C. mountains. The bride, a graduate of Richmond Sr. High School, is employed at the Pinehurst Hotel in Pinehurst. The groom, a graduate of Hoke High School and Johnston Technical College, is employed by Aberdeen and Rockfish Railroad.
