Receiving award
Dennis Bethea (center) receives an award from school Superintendent Dr. Bob Nelson, (right), during a recent reception held at the Hoke County Board of Education offices. Bethea was judged the county's top bus driver and received the Tracy Lea Calhoun Memorial plaque. The award is sponsored by the North Carolina Oil Jobbers Association. Bethea's supervisor, Mrs. Childa Lyons looks on.

Hoke's top bus driver honored

A reception was given in honor of Dennis Bethea, a South Hoke Elementary School bus driver. He was awarded the "Tracy Lea Calhoun Memorial" plaque at the Hoke County Board of Education office on May 7, 1985, by Superintendent, Dr. Robert Nelson.

The award is given in recognition of outstanding achievement in school bus safety. Each year, the North Carolina Petroleum Marketers Association gives each county an opportunity to select one of its drivers who exhibits outstanding qualities in caring for the students who ride on their bus. Dennis has driven a school bus for over ten years, averaging seventy-six miles per day, transporting an average of sixty-two students daily. He was selected by his school principal, Hank Richards, and his supervisor, Mrs. C.M. Lyons, because of his attitude, disposition, concern, care and loyalty to his school, county, parents and citizens of North Carolina.

Fair winners
These South Hoke School students were winners in the recent Social Studies Fair held at the school.

South Hoke students honored for projects

April was Social Studies Month for Hoke County Schools. All of the teachers and students at South Hoke School were busy making projects for the Social Studies Fair.

There were three first-place winners in each grade level. Each winner was presented a blue ribbon and a certificate by Hank Richards, the school principal.

Kindergarten winners and (teachers) were: Bobby Blue (Virginia Smith), Alicia Dial (Pandy Autry), Ronnie Lowery (Beatrice Freeman).

First grade winners and (teachers) were: Bennie Oxendine (Pandy Autry), Melody Cole (Barbara Walters), Chasity Jacobs (Pandy Autry).

Second grade winners and (teachers) were: Byron Jones (Beckie Sutton), Shannon Dickens (Sennie McPhatter), Charles Wall (Beckie Sutton).

Third grade winners and (teachers) were: Jannie Cummings (Bobbie Doby), Tanya Hall (Elsie Cameron), Delton Woods (Elsie Coleman).

Fourth grade winners and (teachers) were: Amy Black (Darlene Clark), Charity Sanderson (Darlene Clark), Steven Jacobs (Jerry Oxendine).

These winners' projects were displayed in the Hoke County Public Library during the last week in April to be judged for the county prizes.

Judges for the South Hoke contest were Myrtis Spencer, Elsie Coleman, Beckie Sutton, Pandy Autry and Beatrice Freeman.

The CEP Social Studies Committee Representative at South Hoke School was Barbara Walters.

On April 23 at 7 p.m., the organizational meeting of PAGE (Parents Association for Gifted Education) was held in the Hoke County High School Library. The guest speaker was Dr. Donald Russell, State Coordinator of PAGE.

Over 100 parents and guests attended. Following the meeting, refreshments were served.

Officers for the 1985-86 school term will be elected at the next meeting which is tentatively scheduled for May 21.

All interested persons are invited to attend.
