CARD OF THANKS

Thanks everyone for their prayers, visits, calls, food, flowers, cards and all kindnesses shown us during the illness and death of my grandson, George Long. You'll never know what it means to our family. May God bless everyone. Louise Long.

CARD OF THANKS

George Edward "Buddy" Long I wish everyone knew just what a nice good man Frank Crumpler is every day. I did not ever notice it until I really needed a friend, and brother, God and Frank were really with me. And the same goes for his staff and his wonderful son Cale. May God keep blessing them all. I thank God for our wonderful police and sheriff's department. I thank all of Buddy's friends and all the other good people who showed their respect. I want you all to know that Buddy's wife and two wonderful little girls were there all the way even if they were not mentioned at all. They were his heart strings. He loved them very much. They did get their only and last wish when the rest were gone from the funeral site. Mr. Crumpler was good enough to open the casket for them to see Buddy for one last time. Thank you all. Father, James Long and wife, Margaret Long and daughters Sabrina and Georgie Long.

It is hard to find the words that we feel in our hearts to say Thank You.

The flowers were beautiful,
the food and cards were thoughtful and appreciated
by all.

Your prayers and concerns were there to help ease the pain in our hearts.

Edward loved everybody
and he will be missed by his

as there is a beginning there also is an end.

On Mother's Day Edward
