Help for child is being sought

A fund has been started by the friends of a 20-month-old Raeford girl who has scoliosis.

Amy Strother, daughter of Leland and Judy Strother, will leave Raeford on June 11 for surgery that will fuse her spine.

The Strothers have insurance but it will not cover all the bills, friends say.

Anyone wishing to help Amy and her parents may make checks payable to the Amy Strother Fund and deliver them to Manning and Associates or to the United Carolina Bank of Raeford to Peggy Summers.

Talking church business
 The Rev. John Kuykendall (center) chats with an unnamed delegate to the Fayetteville Presbytery and Jack Mills (right) during a lunch break at the meeting of the regional governing body in Raeford last Thursday. Kuykendall, who is president of Davidson College, addressed over 200 ministers, elders and visitors that attended the meeting at the Raeford Presbyterian Church. The group gathered to conduct business which directly affects 123 member churches.

Wade earns honors at St. Andrews Col.

Herbert K. Wade, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Wade, Jr. of Route 3 Raeford, was among 30 students earning Sophomore Honors for 1985 at St. Andrews Presbyterian College in Laurinburg, North Carolina.

Each spring the College awards Sophomore Honors to students who have earned a grade point average of 3.25 or better through the winter term of the sophomore year. Students are ineligible for Sophomore Honors if they have received a grade of "F" in any college course or are on academic probation.

College prices are expected to rise 6%, says the College Board, a not-for-profit New York association.

Published poetry
 This fifth grade reading class recently wrote a book of poetry and put it together. All of the poems came from one specific assignment using a picture the children brought from home and a list of descriptive words. The student poets are: Bottom Row - kneeling: Tammy Mishue, Loria Glenn, Lisa King, Kisha Williams, Pinky Zota and Holly Scarboro; Next Row - seated: Crystal Acorn, Lamont McRae, John Irion, Wanda Janos, Jeanne Morris and Shanta Tillman; Top Row: Cartrette Horsely, Sheri Lewis, Jennifer Lindsay, Lisa Simpson, Dione Henderson, Daniel Wright, Lisa Davis, Josh Witherspoon, Bryan Monroe.
