

Summer Youth theatre tryouts begin Wednesday

The North Carolina Arts Council Grassroots Program and Hoke County Schools will sponsor a Summer Youth Theatre at J.W. Turlington School for rising fifth through 12th grade students and recent high school graduates.

Randy Bryant, current drama director at Seventy First High School in Fayetteville, will direct the July production, which will involve dramatic, vocal and movement skills.

Working with Bryant will be pianist Andrea Rodriguez of Raeford.

For Summer Youth Theatre no past experience is required. The student's desire to learn and his commitment to excellence are of upmost importance.

Auditions will be held at J.W. Turlington School Auditorium on Wednesday, June 12 and Thursday, June 13 from 2:30 p.m. - 3:30 p.m. for intermediate students (rising 5 - 8th graders) and from 3:30 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. for high school students (rising 9 - 12 graders) and recent high school graduates.

Students should report to the auditorium any time during these hours dressed in comfortable clothes (no skirts for girls), tennis shoes, dance shoes or bare feet.

If possible, students should prepare for audition a short musical presentation (with printed piano music or recorded accompaniment). About twenty five (25) students in each age group will be accepted for performance.

Bryant, who teaches English, drama and speech at Seventy-First High School, is well known regionally as a character actor and director/producer of student productions.

His credits include numerous shows in Clinton, Greenville, Wilmington and in Fayetteville, at the Fort Bragg Playhouse and the Bordeaux Dinner Theater.

At Bordeaux, he has had leading roles in "My Fair Lady," "A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum," "Oliver," "Once Upon a Mattress," and starred last fall for eight weeks as Tevye in "Fiddler on the Roof."

Last winter Bryant worked at Duke University with Pulitzer Prize winning author William Styron. Bryant performed dramatic readings of several of

Randy Bryant

Styron's best selling works such as Academy Award acclaimed Sophie's Choice.

He is presently rehearsing with Aileen Quinn, star of the motion picture "Annie". Bryant is preparing the role of "The Lion" and Miss Quinn will portray Dorothy in the classic "The Wizard of Oz" opening June 20 at Fort Bragg Playhouse.

Bryant is married to the former Maggie Pate of Roseboro. They have two sons, 11-year-old Eric and nine-year-old Ben.

The summer theatre offers an opportunity for Hoke County students to develop their talents.

Personals

Bill and Linda Parish of Parish Sign & Service recently attended the 1985 Spring Meeting of the Southeast Electric Sign Association held at Kiawah Island, South Carolina.

The Barbecue Cookoff of the Pleasure Island Spring Festival was won recently by Carson Davis Jr. of Wilmington, and his sons, Jeff Davis of Charleston, S.C. and Ted Davis of Raleigh. The Davis family gives credit to a four-generation tradition of good pork cooking.

Mrs. Kathleen McBryde and Mrs. Edith Best have returned from Matthews where they attended the graduation of their grandsons, Wyatt and Everette McBryde, from Independence High School of Charlotte. The graduates' parents are Phil and Jonnie McBryde, formerly of Raeford.

Mrs. Best's other daughters and their families joined the McBrydes for the occasion. Julie and Lanny Landry and their children, Abbie and Earl Murton and their children, and Reba Best attended.

The family then traveled to Goldsboro for a Best family reunion.

Births

Mr. and Mrs. James Russell announce the birth of a daughter on May 28 in Moore Memorial Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Craine Tillman announce the birth of a son on May 31 in Moore Memorial Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Edward Powell announce the birth of a daughter, Ashley Marie, on May 22 in Cape Fear Valley Medical Center.

Mr. and Mrs. David Michael Hoffman, announce the birth of a son, Joseph Andrew, on May 25 in Cape Fear Valley Medical Center.

Over 35

Daniel M. Wright has recently completed 35 years of continuous service at the Burlington Industries Raeford Plant. Wright began his employment with Burlington Industries as a Spinner. After working one year in the Spinning Department he transferred to the Weave Department where he has worked as a Weaver, Warp Hanger, and Technician. He presently works in the Weave Department as a Shift Supervisor.

Agnes Page is retiring

Mrs. Agnes E. Page is retiring after 35 years in education. Mrs. Page was a General Supervisor of Instruction in the Hoke School System for eight years.

Most recently she has taught in the Exceptional Children's Program of the Red Springs City Schools for 11 years. She has also worked in the school system in Robeson, Columbus, and Mecklenburg counties and Maxton and St. Pauls city schools.

Mrs. Page, the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. A.C. Edens of Red Springs, has three children who are also educators. They are Patricia Marshbanks of Goldsboro, Bill Page of New York City, and Dan Page of Auburn in Alabama.
