

Former resident takes Seafood Tournery title

Sixty eight ladies took to the links at Morehead City Country Club recently for the second annual Seafood Invitational golf tournament and Morehead City's Margaret English, formerly of Hoke County came away with the title.

Margaret shot 76-82 with a two day total of 158 and was tied with Rhonda Morris of Ahoskie. They returned to #16 par 5 for a sudden death play off and Margaret won with a par.

She was presented a Canadian goose decoy and a $150 gift certificate from the pro shop by Percell Jones, the tournament chairman.

Margaret was raised in Hoke County, daughter of Mrs. Ruth Willis and sister of Buddy Willis.

She is married to Marvin English also of Hoke County and they have lived in Morehead City since 1972 where Marvin is employed with Conner Homes.

She has been the club champion at Morehead City Country Club for four years.

Pittman Grove wins another

The Pittman Grove Baptist men's softball team won a close decision over a scrappy Lake Lynn Baptist.

The final score was 4-0 for the Raider's fifth shutout in seven games.

The leading hitters were: Philip Manning 3-3, Tony Clark 2-3, Mark Madden 2-3, and Ron Cook 1-2.

The Raiders will play this weekend at the Annual Cedar Falls Classic, hoping to bring the Hoke County team another trophy.

Boris Willis

Willis will attend School of the Arts

Local dancer Boris Willis has been accepted to attend the North Carolina School of the Arts Summer Session to study dance beginning June 23 through July 26.

Willis, a recent Hoke High School graduate, has danced with the Fayetteville Dance Theatre and the Dancers Creative Workshops of Fayetteville under the direction of dance instructor and choreographer Josi Von Strassnick.

While in high school he choreographed, sang and danced in the Hoke High School Chorus and Choral presentations, was a local first place poetry winner in the Raeford Woman's Club Student Arts Festival and was selected by his senior class as "The Most Talented Senior."

He played junior and senior high football, was a member of the band, and participated in Hoke County's Summer Youth Theatre in 1983 and 1984.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Willis of Raeford.
