Bambino pitcher throws a no-hitter

S Jason Huffman, a local Bambino pricher for JRA Industries, pitched a no-hitter in the League Tournament Semi-finals against Burlington on June 28 at Armory Park. Jason began the game by retiring the first three butters in the first inning. He then went on to retire twelve more batters, for a total of fifteen strike-outs. During the game, Jason faced a total of twenty-two batters while allowing only three walks. His contribution to the team was not limited to just defense, however, lasen also powered a grand-slam home run to seal a 8-0 vic-tory for the Padres, and to eline it them a spot in the tournament finals.
