Graham-Carpenter hold Troy wedding

Miss Anita Carpenter became the bride of James Earl Graham on June 29. The wedding was held at St. Stephens Church of Troy. Bishop Wallace Shields officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Jethro and Sarah Carpenter of Troy. She graduated from West Montgomery High School and she is now attending North Carolina Central University.

The groom is a graduate of Hoke County High School. He attended North Carolina A&T. He is employed by D&L Appliance. He is the son of Alma Ree Graham of Raeford.

Paul Thompson, organist, and Eric Carpenter, soloist, provided wedding music. Other musicians were Regina Brown, Robert E. Jackson, Gladys Garris, and Geraldine Ratcliff. Selections included "You and I," "The Closer I Get," "God Bless Our Hearts," and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a long gown of white satin and organza. The neckline was encircled with ruffles. The bodice was trimmed with lace. The long sleeves were sheer and appliqued with lace. Her veil fell from a cap of satin trimmed with pearls.

Priscilla Carpenter, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Her gown was of rose satin with a long sash tied in a bow. She wore a pink lace hat and carried pink and white carnations.

Bridesmaids were Vickie Wilson of High Point, Regina Brown, Covidious Horne, Vanessa Carpenter, and Cecilia Barringer of Troy, Dephine McGill and Tawanna Graham of Raeford, and Mary Moore of Biscoe. They were dressed in short pink satin dresses. They wore baby's breath in their hair and carried long-stemmed carnations.

Tommy Graham of Raeford was best man. Ushers were David Graham, Vincent Flowers, and Michael McGill of Raeford, Ronnie Carpenter of Greensboro, James Knight of New Jersey, Tim Shields of Winston-Salem, Ronald Thomas of Hartsville, S.C. and Terry Jones.

Flower girl was Brandy Jones. Vendel McGill was ringbearer. Leroy Hodge of Bronx, N.Y. was junior usher. Sheniqua Hodge of Bronx, N.Y. was junior bridesmaid.

A reception in the church fellowship hall followed the ceremony.

The groom's mother, Alma Graham, hosted a rehearsal dinner on June 28 at St. Stephens.

After a wedding trip to Virginia, the couple will live in Greensboro.
