Witnesses described the truck to deputies.

Raeford Police Chief Leonard Wiggins reported that six shoplifters were caught last week in local stores.

On August 13, a juvenile shoplifter was caught with $4.79 worth of "consumable goods," Wiggins said.

The 13-year-old girl has been turned over to juvenile authorities, he said.

Tammy Chavis, a 19-year-old Laurinburg resident, was charged with shoplifting $1.19 in make-up on the same day, said the chief.

Also last Tuesday, a 12-year-old juvenile was caught trying to take two toy robots from Raeford's Maxway store.

The toys were valued at $7.94, Wiggins said.

Last Thursday, Anna Brewer, 31, of Rt. 1, Red Springs, was caught trying to leave Revco with $12.61 in over-the-counter drugs and cosmetics, said Wiggins.

On August 17, Lily McLaurin, a 27-year-old Laurinburg resident, was arrested while trying to take 12 bottles of cologne, valued at $81.72, out of the store, he said.

Again on last Saturday, Joyce Bullard, of Rt. 1, Red Springs was cited after being caught trying to take $6.18 in diet pills and other drugs out of Revco, Wiggins said.

On August 12, Artis McGregory reported to sheriff's deputies that a chainsaw and a spraying tank were taken from a storage room on the Charlie's Farm.

The equipment was valued at $350.

A total of $940 in personal property was taken from the residence of Leon Cummings on August 14, reports say.

Hand and power tools, a shotgun and some cash were taken, reports say.

Deputies were given a description of the apparent thieves and their vehicle by a witness, reports say.

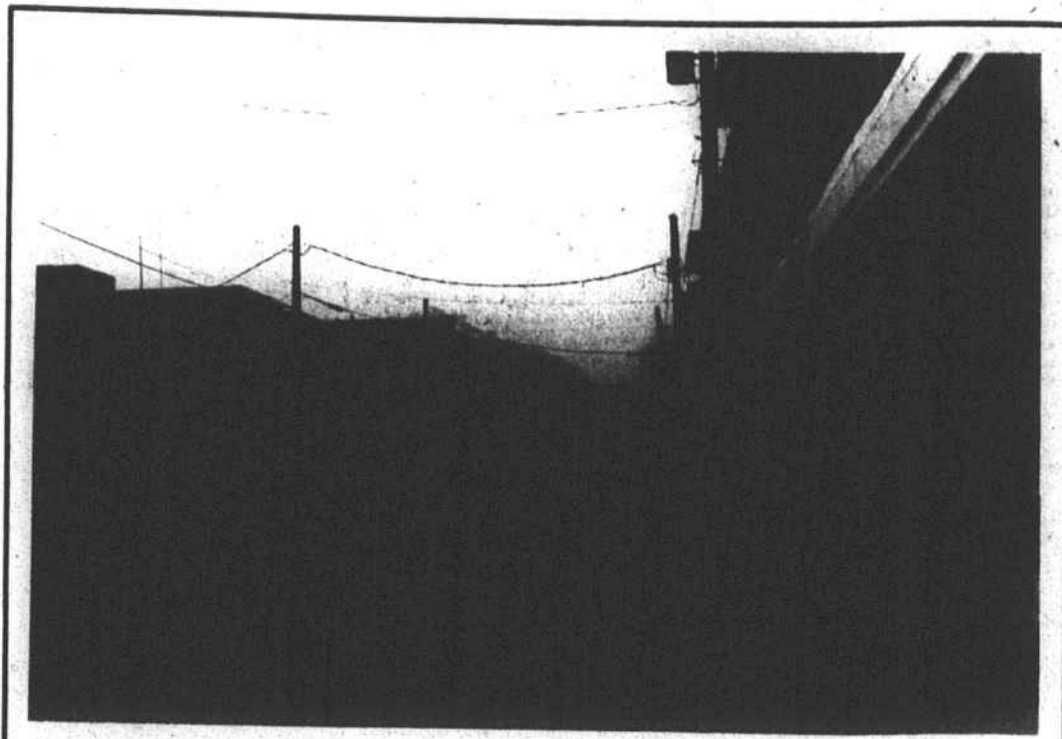

Morris completes ROTC summer work

Cadet Kenneth W. Morris, son of Eutha A. Morris of Rural Route 3, Raeford, received practical work in military leadership at the U.S. Army ROTC advanced camp, Fort Bragg.

The six-week camp, attended by cadets normally between their third and fourth year of college, includes instruction in communications, management and survival training.

Successful completion of the advanced camp and graduation from college results in a commission as a second lieutenant in either the U.S. Army, Army Reserve or National Guard for the cadet.

Low clouds

This is Elwood Avenue early in the morning Tuesday. The sun rose, burning off a fog that wet everything in sight, but no traffic was to be seen on the usually busy street. Within an hour, this avenue would be crowded and the traffic light at the end of the street would be telling drivers when it was safe to cross Main Street.

Car show on tap for Turkey Festival

A Race and Antique Car Show will be held Saturday, September 21 in conjunction with the First North Carolina Turkey Festival in Raeford.

The show, which will begin at 10 a.m. and run until 3 p.m., is being held in the parking lot behind the Hoke County Courthouse on Main Street in Raeford.

A variety of vehicles, in four different class divisions, will make up the show.

Included in the division will be stock cars, drag cars, four-wheel drive dirt and mud trucks, antique cars and restored models.

Car owners or crew personnel will be on hand during the day to exhibit their vehicles.

Trophies will be awarded to the "BEST IN SHOW" in each of the four divisions.

Awards will be presented at 2 p.m.

In addition to the four divisions exhibited, plans are being made to feature several Grand National (Show) cars as part of the show.

The show, which is being locally sponsored, will give area car buffs an opportunity to exhibit the vehicles they are so proud of.

There will be no admission charge.
