Kelly-Ross marry

Sandra Aniese Ross of Raeford, formerly of Elizabethtown, and John Patrick Kelly of Clarkton, were married in a 3 p.m. ceremony at Wesley's Chapel United Methodist Church in Elizabethtown on Sunday, August 4.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Layton Ross of Elizabethtown. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Thurman Kelly of Clarkton.

The Reverend Eekie Lancaster officiated the double-ring ceremony for which Mrs. Carolyn Scoggins, organist and Miss Violet Daniel, soloist presented a program of Wedding music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown designed and handmade by her mother and grandmother, Mrs. Eunice Holmes. The fitted bodice of satin and organza was re-embroidered with gallon lace and seed pearls featuring mandarin neckline. The Tulle net yoke was hand embroidered with sprays of flowers and pearls. The set-in sleeves of tulle net were re-embroidered with matching lace. They were puffed at the shoulders and tapered at the wrist. To the mock basque waist was attached a chapel length skirt of satin overlaid organza. The skirt front and bottom edge were accented with the re-embroidered gallon lace and permanent pleated organza. She wore a chapel length veil edged with lace and pearls that was attached to a band covered with lace from her mother's wedding dress, accented with organza and silk flowers. She carried a colonial bouquet of pink tipped white minuet roses, sprenger fern, and baby's breath.

Mrs. Ronald Williamson of Lake Waccamaw, college roommate of the bride was her matron of honor. She wore a long gown of teal taffeta styled with fitted bodice that was embroidered self-fabric featuring square neckline, box pleated elbow length sleeves, worn off-shoulder and gathered skirt attached at natural waistline with a sash.

Bridesmaids were Karen Denise Holmes of Greensboro, cousin of the bride; Tammy Gooden Jordan, Donna Sellars Smith, and Jennifer Ann Williams of Elizabethtown; Sharon Leigh, Vickie Lynn and Heather Maureen Kelly, sisters of the groom. They were dressed like the matron of honor and all carried arm bouquets of mixed summer flowers tied with pink ribbon streamers.

The grooms father was best man. Ushers were James Michael Kelly of West Virginia and Thurman Joseph Kelly of Clarkton brothers of the groom; Henry Layton Ross Jr. of Elizabethtown brother of the bride; Larry Joe Revels, Larry Forrester Robbins and William Grant Townsend of Elizabethtown; and Daniel Lee Williams of Leland.

Honorary attendance were Sherry Lynn Ward of Charlotte, Martha Lynn Anderson of Greensboro, Cynthia Ann Howell of Raleigh and Janice Marie Butler of Washington, D.C.

The church was simply decorated with sprenger ferns and two wooden handmade candelabras that have been used for weddings in the brides family for five generations. The candelabra held 10 candles each and were encircled with summer garden flowers.

The bride's mother wore a long dress of peach crepe de Chine. The groom's mother wore a long dress of orchid chiffon over taffeta. Both wore minuet rose corsages.

The wedding was directed by Miss Fleta Harrelson of Elizabethtown. Miss Ann Townsend handed out programs

Following the ceremony the bride's parents hosted a reception in the church fellowship hall directed by Mrs. Louis Vaught, and Mrs. Annette Meares. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jessup of Greenville greeted, registered and invited guests to enjoy refreshments served from tables covered with old handmade clothes that were in the family. Mrs. Frank Williams and Mrs. Lloyd Hinson cut the wedding cake that was topped with the bride and groom used on the brides' parents cake March 13, 1955, that had been re-done with a crochet frame handmade by the groom's mother.

The groom is a graduate of Whiteville High School and is employed by Cape Craftsmen Inc. in Elizabethtown.
